Cornell University is operated and overseen by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees consists of 64 voting members including 4 ex-officio\textsuperscript{*} members: The President of the university, the Governor of New York, the Speaker of the New York Assembly and the President of the New York Senate. Two of these 64 members are student-elected trustees; one undergraduate and one graduate/professional student. Both of these student-trustees are elected by all Cornell students to ensure their views are heard by the Board of Trustees. The board delegates the President to oversee the daily operation of the university.

\textit{(*Ex-officio is defined as – “from the office”; member is granted a position because of the office they hold)}

Each constituency here at Cornell has an assembly that represents their interests to the university administration and subsequently, to the Board of Trustees:

- The Student Assembly (SA) represents all undergraduate students
- The Graduate and Professional Student Assembly (GPSA) represents all graduate and professional (M.B.A., E.M.B.A., J.D., J.S.D., LL.M., D.V.M.) students in Ithaca or Geneva, New York
- The Employee Assembly (EA) represents all non-faculty staff members
- The Faculty Senate represents all non-tenured and tenured faculty members. The Faculty senate is supported and reports back to the Dean of Faculty
- The University Assembly (UA) represents the entire Cornell community. The membership of the University Assembly includes faculty and members from the SA, GPSA and EA

Each assembly sends representatives to attend the other assemblies’ meetings. This is to ensure that each constituency is aware of what the other assemblies are discussing. Liaisons are discussed further under The Committee System.

Introduction to the Graduate and Professional Student Assembly (GPSA):

Overview of the GPSA:
The GPSA was established in 1993 and brings together Cornell’s 6,700 graduate and professional students to address issues of common concern. All GPSA meetings are open to the entire Cornell community. Any community member may bring their concerns to the attention of the GPSA.

Some of our activities include the following:

- The GPSA holds hearings to set and allocate the Graduate and Professional Student Activity Fee, which every graduate and professional student pays.
- The GPSA takes action on a range of topics that affect the daily lives of all graduate and professional students, ranging from transportation to library services to international student concerns.
- The GPSA provides support for graduate/professional student programming, including Grad Ball, Grads Nite Out, Spa Day and Inter-college mixers. The GPSA also sponsors social events organized by the Big Red Barn, such as Orientation Ice Cream social, the End-of-Year Barbeque and Summer TGIF.
- We lobby the administration to improve pay and benefits for graduate and professional students, including stipend levels, insurance coverage, quality of health care services, and child care facilities.
- We provide support for campus programming sponsored by graduate and professional student organizations. Through the GPSA Finance Commission, we give student money (from the Activity Fee) to student groups. The Finance Commission and the funding of student groups is discussed further under Funding: The Activity Fee and Funding of Graduate & Professional Student Groups.
- Once a year, a delegation of GPSA members attends the Ivy Summit, where we discuss graduate and professional student issues with our counterparts from Brown, Columbia, Dartmouth, Harvard, U. of Pennsylvania, MIT, Princeton and Yale. This conference allows us to compare notes and strategies with our peer institutions. Each year, the summit takes place at one of the participating universities.
Composition of the Assembly:

The GPSA is composed of:
- (a) Representatives from each academic field in the Cornell Graduate School and professional school (known as Field Representatives)
- (b) 19 Voting members

All graduate and professional students have the opportunity to become members of the GPSA. Each field is permitted one (1) “field representative”. Fields with over 100 graduate students are permitted two (2) field representatives. Each professional school is permitted three (3) representatives. The GPSA welcomes all members from all demographic backgrounds to reflect the diverse nature of Cornell University.

Each field is permitted their own mechanism of selecting their Field Representative. These can include:
- Election by students in the field/school
- Appointment by the field’s Director of Graduate Studies (DGS) or Graduate Field Representative (GFR) if the field does not have a DGS

Each field caucuses with an “area” designation, consistent with the Graduate School. Listed below are the “areas” and which fields are permitted more than one field representative.

Each Spring, field representatives and voting members from Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences and Social Sciences break out into their respective areas and elect the GPSA voting members. Each professional school is permitted their own mechanism of selecting their own GPSA voting member.

This body is composed of nineteen (19) field representatives who wish to become more involved with the parliamentary actions of the GPSA. Voting members are permitted to vote on resolutions and other GPSA Actions (for more details, refer to Bringing business before the GPSA).
The GPSA voting member body is composed of:

- Three seats for Biological Sciences
- Three seats for Humanities
- Four seats for Physical Sciences
- Four seats for Social Sciences
- One seat for each Professional School
- Two seats for graduate students enrolled in Master’s degree programs elected in the fall of each year

*At least one master seat must be held by an individual from the Masters of Engineering program. If no individual is identified by October, that seat becomes available to any masters student.

*During the year, should a seat on the voting member body become vacant, the seat will become an “At-Large” seat where any field representative can be elected. The following year, the seat reverts back to its original designation.

*In order to be elected into the GPSA voting member body, you must be a field representative. Any field or professional school that has a representative as a member of the voting member body is permitted to have an additional appointed field representative.

All GPSA members elect the following GPSA officers:

- President
- Executive Vice President
- Vice President of Operations

All officers must be members of the GPSA voting member body

All GPSA members elect the following GPSA leaders:

- Counsel to the GPSA
- Committee Chairs
- University Assembly Representatives

Responsibilities of these officers and representatives are discussed in the next section, under Duties of GPSA Representatives and Officers.

Faculty Advisor:
The faculty advisor to the GPSA is Kent Hubbell, Dean of Students (klh4@cornell.edu).

Meetings:
The GPSA meets Monday evenings, 5:30pm – 7:00pm twice a month. Locations for meetings are announced ahead of time at http://assembly.cornell.edu/GPSA/Meetings.

If none exists, you can create a dedicated listserv via Cornell Information Technologies (http://www2.cit.cornell.edu/computer/elist/lyris/admin-create.html)
- Attend at least one “area” summit each academic year, where voting members meet with the field representatives
- Field representatives elect the GPSA voting members, officers and committee chairs
- It is highly recommended that field representatives serve on a GPSA and/or university committee

Voting Members:

- Voting members are required to attend all GPSA meetings

- If you are absent, you cannot vote in absentia or vote by proxy
The Graduate Community Initiative (GCI) & The 2010-2015 Strategic Plan:

The GCI was presented by the 2006-2007 GPSA as a strategic planning document to the university administration to further develop a sense of community within the graduate and professional students. Specific issues that are discussed within the GCI include:

- The development of an expanded graduate student center
- The development of a graduate resource career center
- Integration of the graduate and professional student community (cross-department collaboration and student development)
- Discussion and Improvement on other issues of concern to graduate and professional students:
  - Housing
  - Childcare
  - Diversity
  - Teaching Resources
  - Transportation
  - The Environment

Since 2007, both the GPSA and the university administration has worked together to address the issues discussed in the GCI. The GCI is a main focus of GPSA’s agenda each year. All GPSA members are strongly encouraged to review the GCI. The GCI is available at: http://assembly.cornell.edu/GraduateCommunityInitiative/Home.

Beginning in the summer of 2009, Cornell University began to prepare a Strategic Plan document as a roadmap for the future. It was written to not only address the economic issues the university would face in the coming years, but to provide the university with a guide of how the university could be further developed into a stronger academic institution.

In March, 2010, “Cornell University at its Sesquicentennial: A Strategic Plan (2010-2015) was released. Aspects of the GCI were discussed in the Strategic Plan.

In response to the Strategic Plan, the 2009-2010 GPSA prepared a letter entitled “Raising the Bar: A Plan for Graduate & Professional Student Excellence.”

Specific issues addressed in this letter to the Strategic Planning authors included:

- Building Student Excellence & Promoting Diversity
- An Integrated, Interdisciplinary Graduate and Professional Student Experience
- Research and Public Engagement
- Teaching and Mentoring Success
- Building the Leaders and Faculty of the Future

All GPSA members are strongly encouraged to review the Strategic Plan (http://www.cornell.edu/reimagining) and Raising the Bar (http://assembly.cornell.edu/uploads/GPSA/20100402RaisingtheBar.pdf).
The Committee System:

Much of an assembly’s work lies in committees. Committees allow students, staff, faculty and administration to work on a specific issue of interest to them in smaller groups. It promotes conversation between students on the current issues in the Cornell community and how best to respond. Numerous resolutions that come before the GPSA are first developed in committees before being presented to the entire GPSA body. This system also allows for students interested in putting on and attending graduate/professional student events to participate in the GPSA.

Listed below and on the next page are the committees of each assembly that are available to graduate and professional students. There are over 40 committees that are open to graduate and professional students that cover a wide range of topics. You do not need to be a member of the GPSA to serve on a committee. All GPSA members are highly encouraged to join at least one committee. To join a committee, visit http://assembly.cornell.edu/staffing.

GPSA Standing Committees:

<td>Appropriations</td>
<td>The “treasurer” of the GPSA. This committee determines the GPSA operational budget and submits it to the voting members of the GPSA for approval during the first business meeting of the GPSA. During GPS Activity Fee setting years, Appropriations makes a recommendation of what the fee should be to the voting members of the GPSA for approval. The committee also maintains, reviews and amends as needed, the funding guidelines of the Finance Commission.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Communications</td>
<td>The Communications Committee maintains the accessible flow of information from the GPSA to the graduate and professional student body and the Cornell community. Communications is also charged with reaching out to student organizations that promote diversity in the Cornell community and encourage their participation in the GPSA. It is recommended that the Communications Committee form a focus group with potential stakeholders to address this charge.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Graduate &amp; Professional Programming Board</td>
<td>The Programming Board organizes events for the entire graduate and professional student community using funds from the GPS Activity Fee. Events include the annual Grad Ball, monthly Grad Nites Out, mixers, coffee hours, fundraising events, and events for graduate and professional students with families.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Executive</td>
<td>This committee consists of the GPSA President, Executive Vice President and the Vice President of Operations. The Counsel to the GPSA serves as a non-voting member. They set the agenda and chair GPSA meetings.</td>

<td>This committee consists of all GPSA executives and committee chairs. Operations &amp; Staffing staffs graduate and professional students on GPSA and university committees except for the University Hearing &amp; Review Boards. University Assembly representatives are members of the committee and vote only on staffing University Assembly committees. This committee also reviews the GPSA Charter, Bylaws and funding documents during Charter review years. This committee also ensures that the GPSA functions in an environmentally sustainable way.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student Advocacy</td>
<td>This committee works to act on issues of stipend levels, mental and physical health, child care, diversity and the general well being of all graduate and professional students. The committee holds one town hall meeting each year (usually in the Spring) in order to solicit feedback from the graduate/professional student community on specific issues. To assist in the committee’s charge in addressing issues of graduate mental health and wellness, it is recommended that the Student Advocacy Committee form a focus group of its members to meet with university administrators, Gannett Health services and the Dean of Students office regularly.</td>

 Areas = Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences and Social Sciences

 These committees can have 2 grad/prof seats. One of the seats must be a University Assembly member (see below)

Note regarding University Hearing & Review Boards: 26 positions are available to undergraduate, graduate, and professional students. There is no set number of graduate/professional students. GPSA liaisons & representatives to other assemblies:

To ensure that the GPSA keeps abreast of what is happening in each assembly, the GPSA appoints a liaison to each assembly, to attend their meetings.

Additionally, the GPSA sends three representatives to the University Assembly. These representatives have full voting rights. At least one member must be the presiding member of the GPSA (GPSA President). One of the 3 serves on the University Assembly Executive Committee as the graduate chair.

Funding - The Activity Fee and Funding of Graduate & Professional Student Groups:

Introduction:
One of the most important actions the GPSA undertakes every 2 years is to establish the graduate and professional student activity fee. Every graduate and professional student pays the Graduate & Professional Student Activity Fee (half of the fee in the Fall semester and the remainder in the Spring semester). According to Section 2.02 of the GPSA Charter,

The GPSA, during the fall semester of every odd-numbered year, through the authority delegated by the President of the University and the Board of Trustees, shall be charged with recommending the amount and the allocation of the Graduate and Professional Student Activity Fee, subject to the approval of the President of the University.

The activity fee is distributed to thirteen campus groups (byline funded groups) whose activities are directed to graduate and professional student groups apply to receive money.

The non-GPSA groups that currently receive activity fee money are the following:

<tr>
<td>Free Big Red Sports Pass. Provides graduate &amp; professional students and their immediate families with free admission to all home athletic contests except Men's Ice Hockey.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Discounted Men's Ice Hockey season tickets. 200 season tickets at a price that is $5 per game less than the regular season ticket price.</td>

Cornell University Emergency Medical Service
Cornell University EMS provides emergency response at the Emergency Medical Technician Basic Life Support Level to medical emergencies on the Cornell University campus and surrounding Cornell owned property twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week during the academic year. This service is provided for free to anyone on campus.

Cornell University Programming Board
CUPB brings non-musical entertainment to campus; this includes lecturers, speakers, and comedians (approx. 4 per academic year). Discounted tickets are provided to graduate students. Past shows have included Bill Maher, Howie Mandel, Bo Burnham, Stephen Colbert and former NY governor George Pataki.

Graduate & Professional Student Orientation
GPSA by-line funding supports orientation and social activities for all new graduate & professional students who arrive to Cornell in August and January. Our usual offerings include (all free events): Resource fairs for students and family members, Orientation peer panels on life at Cornell, Ice cream social at the Big Red Barn, Group social/recreational outings on campus and in the community and campus tours designed specifically for new graduate/professional students.

International Student Program Board
Provides funding for groups organizing events on campus (up to $500 or more if event attracts >250 people). Organizes international and cultural events that are open to graduate students.

Slope Day (held on the last day of classes in the Spring semester)
The Slope Day Programming Board's mission is to plan and program a Slope Day centered on the Cornell community and its celebration of the past year, through working to break down social barriers, build a greater sense of tradition and community, and foster an environment where students, staff, and faculty can come together as one Cornell. Students work with faculty, staff, and other community members in all colleges, departments, and divisions to plan and promote Slope Day.

The GPSA groups that currently receive activity fee money are the following:
- The GPSA
- The Graduate and Professional Student Programming Board
- The GPSA Finance Commission
Money given to the GPSA:
This money goes towards the GPSA operational budget. This budget is designed by the Appropriations committee and is presented to the GPSA. The GPSA then votes to approve the budget. Items in the budget include:

- Meeting costs & food at meetings
- Clerk’s Salary
- Attendance to Ivy Summit / savings for when Cornell hosts the Ivy Summit.
- Committee Expenses: Operational Costs (printing supplies, food, etc…) plus the following specifics:
  - Communications: Promotions
  - Student Advocacy: Town Hall

Money given to the Graduate and Professional Student Programming Board (GPSPB):
The GPSPB receives money from the GPSA (as stated above) and from the Activity Fee.

(1) The money given to the GPSPB by the Activity Fee:
This money is used to offset the costs of events open to the entire graduate and professional student community. A majority of the money is used to host the annual Grad Ball. Other events organized by the GPSPB include monthly Grad Nites Out, mixers, coffee hours, fundraising events, and events for graduate and professional students with families. This money is not used by the GPSPB for operational and meeting costs.

(2) The money given to the GPSPB by the GPSA:
This money goes toward the operational costs for GPSPB meetings. This money is not used by the GPSPB for funding events.

Money given to the GPSA Finance Commission (GPSAFC):
The GPSAFC receives money from the GPSA (as stated above) and from the Activity Fee.

(1) The money given to the GPSAFC by the Activity Fee:
This money goes toward funding over 200 registered graduate and professional student organizations on the Cornell campus in order to better the experience for our constituents. Registered organizations that have at least 40% of graduate/professional student membership are allowed to apply for funds. These applications are reviewed by the Finance Commission, which distributes the funds based on the merits of the groups and applications. This money is not used by the GPSAFC for operational and meeting costs.

(2) The money given to the GPSAFC by the GPSA:
This money goes toward the operational costs for GPSAFC meetings where the commissioners review student group applications. This money is not used by the GPSAFC for funding student groups.
How the Graduate and Professional Student Activity fee is determined:

(a) During the spring semester of every odd-numbered year, the twelve byline funded groups submit an application (http://assembly.cornell.edu/GPSAAppropriations/Home) to the Office of Assemblies indicating their request for byline funding. The groups indicate how much money from every single enrolled graduate and professional student they want. In this application includes the group charter, profile and budget.

(b) During the Fall semester of every odd-numbered year, the Appropriations Committee reviews each application. The byline groups present to the Appropriations Committee and if requested, to the entire GPSA.

(c) The activity fee must be to the nearest whole dollar. With the exception of the GPSAFC, groups cannot receive more money than what they requested. The GPSAFC allocation must be at least 35% of the total activity fee amount and is adjusted such that the activity fee total is to the nearest dollar.

(d) The Appropriations Committee then presents its initial recommendation of what the activity fee should be set at along with the allocation amounts for each byline group. The committee indicates whether a group should receive funding or not.

(e) The activity fee then goes through 2 cycles of voting.

CYCLE 1) The GPSA then votes on the Appropriations Committee recommendations. Line votes are held (i.e. there is a vote for each byline group allocation recommendation). Although Appropriations makes recommendations on what the funding level for each group should be, you are actually just voting on whether a byline group should receive money. Therefore, your votes indicate the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>A GPSA member voting YES means either:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(a) You agree that the byline group should receive activity fee money and you agree with the Appropriations Committee’s recommendation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(b) You agree that the byline group should receive activity fee money but you do NOT agree with the Appropriations Committee’s recommendation.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| NO   | A GPSA member voting NO means that you do not agree that the byline group should receive activity fee money |

CYCLE 2) The GPSA then votes on the entire activity fee amount and byline group allocations. At this time, amendments to the allocation levels are welcomed. Each amendment must be voted on prior to the final vote of the activity fee.

(f) The entire allocation process must be finished by the last day of classes of the Fall semester. Applying organizations are informed of the allocation they will receive prior to the start of the Spring Semester.
How student groups receive money from the GPSAFC:

Applications are found at http://assembly.cornell.edu/GPSAFC/ApplyForFunds.

Specific eligibility requirements for a student group to receive GPSAFC allocations can be found at: http://assembly.cornell.edu/GPSAFC/FundingGuidelines. Listed below is a brief outline of the procedure and what activities student groups can request money for from the GPSAFC.

(a) A graduate/professional group must be registered with the Student Activities Office (SAO) and have 40% of its membership consist of graduate/professional students.

(b) Groups can request the following money. Any group can apply for items A through D. Student organizations affiliated with specific academic fields can also apply for item E.

A. Programs: No more than $1500

B. Club Sports: No more than $500 per year per organization.

C. Publication: No more than $500 per year per organization.

D. Social: No more than $300 per year per organization.

E. Field: Only one organization per academic field can apply for this funding and such an organization must represent all the students in a given field. If necessary, the field’s Director of Graduate Studies (DGS) or Director of M.Eng. Program, or the professional school’s Director of Student Affairs, will make the final determination on which organization represents the graduate or professional students of a given field. The level of funding depends on the number of graduate and professional students in the organization’s field of study. Each eligible field organization that applies for funding will receive a base allocation of $200 with an additional $2 for each student in that field. To receive field funding an organization must have a charter, elected officers, regularly scheduled meetings and have a representative of the academic field attend GPSA meetings. If the GPSA Executive Vice-President informs the GPSA Finance Commission of a sustained vacancy in any seat, the GPSAFC will freeze any funding allocated in the “field” category to that field’s representative organization until the organization fills the seat(s).

(c) At least once a month, the GPSAFC convenes. The committee reviews the applications and vote on the allocation to be distributed. Throughout the year, the GPSAFC works closely with the Office of Assemblies’ Accounts representative.

(d) First time applicants for GPSAFC funding cannot apply for more than $150 in the Social category and $300 for Program, Club Sports, and Publication categories combined. First time applicants may apply for additional funding through Special Project Requests.

(e) Groups that have submitted an Annual Budget Application and need additional funds for specific events may submit Special Project Requests. An organization can use Special Project Requests to accommodate programming needs that were either not anticipated in the annual budget application or whose total cost exceeds what can be reasonably financed out of an annual budget.

The GPSAFC organizes one meeting during the Spring semester, prior to the annual budget request deadline, where student organizations may come to learn about the regulations and procedures of the Commission.

Once budgets have been submitted, the GPSAFC holds a half-day meeting to review all annual budget applications for the following year and determine allocations based on the GPSAFC Funding Guidelines.
Bringing business before the GPSA (Motions & Resolutions):

Governing Documents of the GPSA:

There are four basic documents that govern how the GPSA operates:

- The Charter: The Constitution of the GPSA, establishing the existence and authority of the GPSA
- The Bylaws: The rules that dictate how the GPSA operates and specifically defines the functions of the GPSA committees
- GPSA Byline Funding Allocation Procedures: This document states how the GPSA determines the amount and distribution of the Graduate and Professional Student Activity Fee
- GPSA Eligibility Criteria and Obligations for Byline Funded Organizations: This document is prepared by the GPSA for the byline funded groups. It lists the obligations each group must undertake in order to receive the Graduate and Professional Student Activity Fee

Updated versions of these documents are available at: http://assembly.cornell.edu/GPSA/Documents

Bringing business before the GPSA:

The agenda for the GPSA meetings is set by the Executive Committee. All GPSA meetings are open to the entire Cornell community. Any community member may bring their concerns to the attention of the GPSA. There are several ways this can be done:

- Students who are not members of the GPSA can contact and work with their field representative to have the item brought before the GPSA
- Students (whether they are a GPSA member or not) who have an item they wish to discuss should contact the GPSA Executive Committee for the item to be added to the meeting agenda
- During all GPSA meetings, Open Forum is held. This is a set time during the meeting where any community member can speak on any issue that is not on the meeting agenda

Resolutions:

A resolution is a written statement expressing the desires of the GPSA. Typically, resolutions are written as a response from the GPSA to a particular administrative unit of the university. There are two ways resolutions can be submitted to the GPSA for consideration:

- Any GPSA member may present a resolution to the GPSA Executive Committee. The committee will then add it to the agenda for consideration and vote by the GPSA
- Upon signing of a petition by 100 Cornell graduate and professional students, a resolution may be presented to the GPSA for consideration

Depending on the type of resolution, a resolution passes on the following conditions:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Resolution Type</th>
<th>Procedure</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Changes to the GPSA Charter, GPSA Byline Funding Allocation Procedures or GPSA</td>
<td>This resolution requires at least two meetings to pass. In the first GPSA meeting, the resolution is introduced and debated/discussed only. During the next GPSA meeting, the resolution is again introduced and debated/discussed. A vote can then be called for in this meeting. Resolution passes if you have 2/3 majority vote of the seated GPSA members.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eligibility Criteria and Obligations for Byline Funded Organizations</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Changes to the GPSA Bylaws or any other resolution</td>
<td>Resolution is introduced and debated/discussed at a GPSA meeting. A vote on the resolution can be called for at this meeting. Resolution requires a simple majority of the present seated GPSA members.</td>

Draft example of a GPSA Resolution:

Resolution R.#: TITLE OF RESOLUTION

Begin with background information on the issue to explain the purpose of the resolution. Limit one whereas clause to one statement. End statement with a semi-colon (;)

Continue each background statement as Whereas statements. End each statement with a semi-colon (;) unless it is the last clause. End the last Whereas clause with a period (.)

Be it therefore resolved that ___________.

Be it further resolved that ___________.

Continue your resolution. End each statement with period (.)

Be it finally resolved that this resolution be sent to ___________________________.

End the resolution by listing the individuals to whom you want this document sent to. Typically, copies of resolutions always go to the Dean of Students (GPSA Advisor) and the Dean of the Graduate School in addition to the attended recipients.

Robert’s Rules of Order & GPSA Meeting Structure:

Historically, the GPSA meetings have included both:

- Informal Discussion: This allows for all members of an assembly to work within an informal environment (usually in breakout groups according to area) during the meeting to contribute ideas to a given issue within the graduate and professional student community.
- Formal business: This is a more formal environment during the meeting. It allows for decision-making and solutions to be based on majority vote. For business items, GPSA meetings operate under Robert’s Rules of Order (RROO). RROO establishes proper parliamentary procedure for all actions undertaken by the GPSA.

The Executive Committee sets the agenda and determines the parliamentary procedures that the meeting will operate under.

To ask GPSA to do something, you must make a motion. Motions are listed on the next page.

In order to speak during a meeting, you must be recognized by the chair of the meeting unless the motion you are making allows for an interruption (see next page).

The Vice President of Operations serves as the GPSA Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian ensures that any GPSA action follows RROO, the GPSA Charter and the GPSA Bylaws. If you are ever unsure of what to do, make a motion during the meeting for “Parliamentary Inquiry (§33).”

A typical agenda for the GPSA may be as follows:

DISCUSSION OF THE DAY

- Welcome & Introductions
  The chair of the meeting will start the meeting. Individuals who are present introduce themselves.

- Open Forum
  Members of the Cornell Community can raise any issue or concern they may have to the GPSA.

- Executive & Standing committee updates
  Members of the Executive Committee will report to the GPSA what work they have done and make any announcements as needed. Standing committee chairs (or their representatives) will report to the GPSA what their committee has worked on since the previous GPSA meeting. Depending on time, the chair of the meeting may allow questions and/or comments from anyone present at the meeting. GPSA members are expected to report back to their constituents this information.

- Discussion items
  GPSA members discuss issues affecting graduate and professional students as raised by GPSA members, GPSA Committees, or other stakeholders. Format and goals of this discussion includes:
  - Break-out discussion of specific issues where appropriate, including guest presentations;
  - Recommending agenda items for future GPSA meetings;
  - Developing and discussing resolutions for consideration by voting members;

BUSINESS OF THE DAY

- Roll Call
  The chair of the meeting will call the roll of voting members to ensure that quorum is present in order for business to be carried out in the meeting.

- Business items
  Items for the GPSA to consider, debate and vote on (i.e. resolutions) are discussed at this time. Typically the procedure for discussion of business items are as follows:
  - Introduction: The sponsor of the resolution will present the resolution to the GPSA.
  - Formal debate: The chair will allow someone who is against the resolution to then speak.
  - General debate: The chair will open the floor to discussion and questions. All questions and comments must be directed to the chair of the meeting. Calls for amendments are also welcomed at this time. An amendment can be introduced using a motion (see above).
  - End debate/vote: A GPSA member can make a motion to either end debate and call a vote, extend debate, refer to a committee, etc... using a motion (see above). Motion to close debate typically requires only a simple majority.*

During discussion, it is recommended that meeting attendees breakout by area such that field representatives can communicate with their voting members.

During voting, a GPSA member with voting privileges is able to either vote in support of the motion, against the motion or abstain from the vote. An abstaining vote does not count towards any vote that requires either majority or 2/3 majority vote.

This site is maintained by the Office of Assemblies and serves as the archive of past GPSA membership, resolutions and other actions undertaken by the GPSA. GPSA Committee websites are also located on this website. Links to the Cornell Office of Assemblies and the other Cornell assemblies can be found here as well.
This site also is the home to the following important documents of the GPSA:
- GPSA Charter
- GPSA Byline Funding Allocation Procedures
- GPSA Financial Commission Forms & Funding Guidelines
- GPSA Bylaws
- GPSA Eligibility Criteria and Obligations for Byline Funded Organizations
- Student Advocacy Resource Sheet
Use this website if you are interested in serving on a committee. To apply for a committee, scroll to “Requests for Membership” and click the link which indicates how many committees you are eligible for. To renew your current membership, click on renew under “Current Memberships.” Your request will be sent to the Vice President of Operations who will then forward your application to the Operations & Staffing Committee for review and contact you with the committee’s decision.

Reimbursement Form

Instructions

- Direct payments to speakers or performers for engagement fees and/or travel expenses need to be submitted on a Speaker/Performer Reimbursement/Payment Form.
- For any expense of $500 or more, the SAFC/GPSAF Office will need to be contacted to approve the request PRIOR TO RECEIVING THE PRODUCT OR SERVICE (i.e. purchases or rental of sound, lighting, equipment, publications, etc.). Cornell WILL NOT PAY the vendor or reimburse any out-of-pocket expenses. Allow three (3) weeks for processing the reimbursement.
- The President, Treasurer and/or Advisor, as listed on the budget application, are the only authorized signatures for your SAFC/GPSAF account. Forgery is potentially a felony. Do not sign someone else's name in any situation!
- Only the person who incurred the expense, and whose name is listed on the receipt, can be reimbursed. The payee’s signature and Cornell ID #/Fed ID # MUST appear on all forms and certified by the signature of the president and treasurer as the individual who incurred the expense.
- If submitting more than one receipt, staple or tape them to a separate sheet of paper (in a displayed manner) that corresponds to the order they are listed on the Financial Reimbursement Form. Attach this separate sheet of receipts to this form.
- Include advertisement of event (flyer, program, agenda, etc.). In order to be reimbursed from SAFC/GPSAF funding for any expense, ALL advertisements must include the statements: "Open to the Cornell Community". SAFC Organizations also need to use the SAF Logo or include the statement "Funded by (or in part by) Student Activity Fee". GPSAF organizations add "Funded by (or in part by) the GPSAF".
- Include taxes and non-refundable fees paid, but exclude deposits and rebates that the organization can redeem.
- All events using GPSAF PROGRAM funds must be posted to the Cornell Calendar of Events http://www.cornell.edu/events/ at least two weeks prior to the event.
- Reimbursements of conference fees or student travel expenses must have a completed Student Travel Addendum attached. If claiming private vehicle mileage, put payee/drivers name down as the Vendor and mileage driven under "Receipt Total" on the Financial Reimbursement Form.
- Submit requests within 30 days of the expense. SAFC organizations have until the Monday following the last day of class to submit reimbursement requests. The deadline for GPSAF reimbursements is the first working day in June. Regardless if the expense is 30 days or less!
