

Cornell University Employee Assembly

Employee Assembly Election Rules

Spring 2023

Candidates and their supporters must follow all election guidelines outlined in this document. Failure to do so may result in disqualification of candidates by the Employee Assembly Elections Committee, hereafter referred to as the committee.

1 Candidate Information

1. Eligibility

Candidates must complete the online registration materials and meet the qualifications listed in sections A and B below to become eligible. Candidates and their supporters shall comply with all standing rules and regulations of the University.

A. Employee candidates must

1. Work full-time or part-time in a non-exempt, exempt, or academic non- professorial staff category
2. Work at the Ithaca, AgriTech in Geneva, or Cornell Tech campus
3. Work in the corresponding academic college/school if seeking those seats, in the corresponding staff unit if seeking those seats, or identify as a member of the corresponding affinity group if seeking those seats.
4. Plan to remain so for the duration of their position's term.

B. Candidates shall attend mandatory meetings or send a proxy on their behalf. If they fail to do so, they will be disqualified from the election.

2. Promotional Materials and Events

A. Each candidate may elect to receive 300 single-sided 8.5" X 11" photocopied, black and white impressions at no charge. You may submit a poster design via the Candidate Registration Form for copying by the petitioning deadline. Candidates may select the color of the paper on which the materials are printed from a standard palette provided on the Registration Form. All materials must include the dates and times of the election that are set in the elections calendar.

B. Each candidate must complete the candidate background profile and statement via the Candidate Registration Form online. Candidates who are not able to submit statements online may contact the Office of the Assemblies to make alternate arrangements. Statements will be posted on the Employee Assembly elections website, used on the ballot, and published in campus publications.

C. Candidates may submit their own photo or have a photo taken by the Office of the Assemblies. The Office of the Assemblies, located in 109 Day Hall, will take photographs for candidates prior to the material submission deadline on the calendar. These photos and other candidate information will appear in campus publications, on the web, and on the ballots.

D. All candidates are encouraged to participate in any public candidate forums organized in collaboration with the Employee Assembly.

Election Guidelines

1. Maintaining a Fair Environment

- a) Candidates and their supporters must comply with the election rules stated here. They shall not create an intimidating or uncomfortable environment for other candidates or employees. They shall notify the

38 committee of any potential violations immediately after they occur by emailing the Office of the
39 Assemblies. They shall rectify any violations to the best of their ability upon notification by the 40 committee. They may still submit a challenge for any violation at the conclusion of the campaigning 41 period if desired.

- 42 b) Candidates and their supporters may not exceed $50 for out-of-pocket spending and fair market value
43 of donations of materials and professional services. Candidates must submit a Candidate Expenditure
44 Statement Form and all receipts and proof of fair market value to the Office of the Assemblies, 109
45 Day Hall, by the deadline specified on the Elections Calendar. If no money was spent for the 46 campaign, the Candidate Expenditure Statement Form must still be signed and dated showing a 47 statement of zero ($0) spending and turned in by the deadline.
- 48 c) Candidates may be reimbursed for up to $50 of allowable campaign expenses. Common allowable
49 campaign expenses include: photocopies from on-campus vendors, domain name fees, and web
50 hosting fees. If there is any question, Candidates should receive preclearance on expenditures to ensure 51 that they are reimbursable. Only expenditures that are submitted on the official candidate expenditure
52 statement form with the original receipt will be reimbursed.

53
54 All campaign materials, either physical or electronic, published by candidates and/or their supporters are to 55 promote only the Employee Assembly candidate. Any materials that include the names, positions, or any other 56 information regarding other elections are strictly prohibited.

57 58 2. Early Campaigning

59 Candidates and their supporters shall refrain from the following campaign activities until campaigning 60 officially begins:

- 61 a) distributing printed or electronic campaign material to the public,
- 62 b) advertising candidacy by poster or other method designed for public viewing,
- 63 c) making speeches or statements to employee organizations or groups of employees.

64
65
66 Current Employee Assembly members seeking re-election are expected to refrain from any form of publicity
67 during the petitioning period.

68 69 3. University Postering & Chalking Policy

70 Candidates and their supporters shall comply with the University Postering & Chalking Policy, included in the 71 election packet.

72 73 4. Campus Mail

74 Use of Campus Mail for campaigning purposes is prohibited.

75 76 5. Electronic Communications

77 University-hosted e-mail traffic is at the discretion of the list owner. When in doubt, the candidate shall 78 obtain permission from the owner of the list.

79 80 6. Ethical Conduct

81 All candidates and their supporters shall comply with applicable rules and policies of the University, including 82 the Statement of Ethical Conduct.

83 84 Violations and Penalties

85 The committee shall determine whether or not a candidate has committed a campaign violation. Campaign
86 violations may result in appropriate remedial measures determined by the committee up to and including
87 disqualification of a candidate. Should the committee decide that a violation or series of violations have been

88 committed on such a scale as to alter the fairness of the election, it may disqualify a candidate by majority vote.
89 Any concerns or complaints shall be sent to the Office of the Assemblies.
90

91 Election Procedures

92 1. The Elections Calendar

- 93 a. The committee shall adopt a spring elections calendar.
- 94 b. Consideration shall be given to any religious holidays that may fall during the election period, so
95 that the right to free religious observance is afforded to all potential candidates.

96
97 2. The Employee Assembly Elections Committee

- 98 a. Committee members are expected to abide by the highest standards of personal conduct and
99 integrity. Members shall recuse themselves from decisions and deliberations in which they have a 100 vested interest as a candidate or as a public supporter of a candidate.
- 101 b. The committee shall meet as soon as possible after each challenge deadline.
- 102 c. The committee shall verify election results.

103
104 3. The Office of the Assemblies

- 105 a. The Office of the Assemblies by delegation from the committee shall prepare, distribute, and 106 receive all printed material and distribute election materials.

107
108 4. Conduction of Election and Tabulation

- 109 a. Online ballots are the preferred means of voting; if paper ballots are used, completed ballots are 110 due to the Office of the Assemblies by the deadline set forth in the elections calendar.
- 111 b. The order of names on the ballots shall be randomly selected.
- 112 c. The Office of the Assemblies will identify as eligible voters those who:
  - 113 i. work full-time or part-time in a non-exempt, exempt, or academic non-
114 professorial staff category
  - 115 ii. work at the Ithaca, Geneva, or Tech campus
- 116 d. The Office of the Assemblies will tabulate votes using the Hare System, as described on the 117 Assemblies Elections home page.
- 118 e. The Office of the Assemblies will secure ballots for one calendar year after the election.

119
120 5. Challenges

- 121 a. Eligibility to Challenge
  - 122 i. Any member of the Cornell community, except members of the committee, may submit a 123 challenge.
- 124 b. Challenge Deadlines
  - 125 i. Petition challenges must be submitted to the Office of the Assemblies, 109 Day Hall, by 126 4:30 p.m. on the next business day following the petition deadline. While petitions are 127 typically required for assembly elections, they are being waived for the Spring 2022
128 election to create greater parity between staff who are in person, hybrid or remote.
  - 129 ii. Election challenges must be submitted by 12:00 p.m. on the same day that ballots are 130 due and voting ends.
  - 131 iii. No challenges or further supporting documentation will be accepted after these 132 deadlines.
- 133 c. Format of Challenges
  - 134 i. Challenges must be in writing and accompanied by the following 135 supporting documentation:
    - 136 1. Challenger's name

- 137                                   2. Candidate's name
138                                   3. Date of challenge
139                                   4. Reason for challenge and supporting evidence
140 d. Notification of Election Challenges
141        i. The Office of the Assemblies will send an email notifying anyone who is named in a
142        challenge.
143 e. Response to Election Challenges
144        i. A challenged candidate may review challenges in the Office of the Assemblies, 109 Day
145        Hall and address written statements in response to the committee.
146 f. Challenge Review Meeting
147        i. The committee will schedule a meeting to review challenges in closed session and will 148        decide the merit of each challenge by majority vote.
149 g. Appeals
150        i. If a disqualified candidate believes that the Elections Committee failed to correctly follow or 151        enforce the challenge procedure outlined in the Elections Rules after the Elections
152        Committee's decision, they may request a review by a third party, selected by the Office of 153        the Assemblies, within 24 hours after the Election Committee's initial decision.
154 h. Finality
155        i. The determination of the committee shall be final.
156 i. Confidentiality
157        i. All challenges are confidential and shall be available only to the members of 158        the committee.
