

Charter

Cornell University Assembly

As amended on April 25, 2023

PREAMBLE

After consultation with members of the campus community, and to effect more extensive involvement in campus governance by the representatives of the constituent assemblies of faculty, students, and employees, the President, through the authority granted them by the Board of Trustees, hereby establishes this Charter for the University Assembly of Cornell University.

ARTICLE I: NAME AND DEFINITIONS

Section 1: Name

The name of this organization is the University Assembly of Cornell University, hereinafter referred to as the Assembly or the UA.

Section 2: Definitions

- A. Campus Community: The students, staff, and faculty of the Ithaca and Geneva campuses of the university.
- B. Constituency: A constituency is a population represented by one of the constituent assemblies.
- C. Constituent Assembly: Any one of the following campus governance units of the university may be considered a constituent assembly: Student Assembly, Graduate and Professional Student Assembly, Employee Assembly, or Faculty Senate.
- D. Session of the Assembly: A session of the Assembly begins June 1 and continues through May 31 of the next year.

ARTICLE II: OBJECT

The object of the Assembly is to improve and sustain the involvement of the campus community in the governance of campus affairs affecting the broad campus community by establishing open, effective, and efficient channels of communication between and amongst the community and university administration.

ARTICLE III: AUTHORITY AND

RESPONSIBILITY

The Assembly, by delegation from the President, has the following authority and responsibilities:

Section 3.1: Authority in policy development

The Assembly may examine, on its own initiative, matters which involve the interests or concern the welfare of a substantial segment of the campus community and may make recommendations or resolutions thereon to the President or to other appropriate officers or decision-making bodies of the University. Such matters include, but are not necessarily limited to:

- common standards of conduct,
- campus planning,
- diversity and inclusion,
- environmental impact and sustainability,
- family support,
- health services,
- information technology,
- public safety, and,
- transportation and commuter policies.

Sub-Section 3.1.1: Assembly responsibilities

To the extent practical and appropriate, the Assembly shall provide public notice of either the terms or the substance of each proposed recommendation or resolution and a meaningful opportunity for community participation in the development of such recommendations and resolutions. Such opportunity may include:

- A. a comment period of at least one calendar month during which any member of the community may submit written information or opinions for the Assembly's consideration,
- B. at least one public hearing during which any member of the community may submit information or opinions to the Assembly in person for its consideration, and,
- C. solicitation of pertinent information from appropriate University officials.

Sub-Section 3.1.2: Recipient responsibilities

- A. To the extent practical and appropriate, University officials will provide pertinent information as the Assembly requests.
- B. Recipients of recommendations and resolutions shall reply in writing, either accepting them or explaining why they will not be implemented. When circumstances prevent recipients' response within one calendar month, they shall inform the Assembly of such circumstances and a date by which it can expect a response.

Sub-Section 3.1.3: Policies and actions subject to Assembly review

- A. Responsible University officials shall consider designating the Assembly, or one of its constituent assemblies, as a stakeholder in each impact statement, prepared under the terms of University Policy 4.1, Policy on the Formulation and Issuance of University Policies, which involves the interests or concerns the welfare of a substantial segment of the campus community. If the Assembly is not identified as a stakeholder, the impact statement should incorporate a brief explanation for this determination.
- B. Where circumstances permit, the Assembly shall be allowed a period of at least one calendar month to review and respond to proposed changes of the following policies:
 - a. the Rules and Regulations for the Control of Traffic and Parking on the Grounds of Cornell University.
 - b. Officers of the university should consider consultation with the Assembly before implementing other significant actions or policies which involve the interests or concern the welfare of a substantial segment of the campus community.
- C. The Assembly may review or recommend specific policies and actions on its own initiative or in response to a petition from members of its constituencies.

Section 3.2: Appointments to certain administrative offices

Sub-Section 3.2.1: Confirmation of certain Presidential appointments

The Assembly must approve each appointment or reappointment by the President of the University of the University Ombuds. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the University Ombuds, the President or a designee will appoint a search committee to which the Assembly may appoint a representative. The University Ombuds may serve any number of consecutive terms; however, no single term may exceed two years.

Section 3.3: Internal operations

The Assembly has authority in matters concerning its internal operation and maintenance, including provisions for the creation of bylaws and procedures.

Section 3.4: Establish committees

The Assembly establishes standing committees and ad hoc committees as needed to perform its duties.

Section 3.5: Reservation of authority

Cornell University University Assembly

131 Nothing contained herein shall be construed to limit or constrain the President or other 132 officers of the
133 University in the exercise of their delegated authority. The Assembly shall also defer to 134 the advisory
135 authority of the Faculty Senate and the college and school faculties regarding matters of 136 educational
137 policy within their purview pursuant to the University Bylaws.
138

139 ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

140

141 Section 4.1: Composition and terms

142

- 143 A. The total membership of the Assembly shall consist of twenty voting members: five
144 Undergraduate Student Representatives, five Graduate and Professional Student
145 Representatives, five Employee Representatives, and five Faculty Representatives.
- 146 B. Appointments to the Assembly will be made before the last regularly scheduled 147 meeting of the current session of the Assembly. Seats left unfilled after this time
148 will be considered vacant. Terms shall be served for a duration determined by the 149 constituent assembly at the time of their appointment, and may be for one or two 150 years concurrently.
- 151 a. For a given session of the Assembly, the Student Assembly, Graduate and 152 Professional Student Assembly, Employee Assembly, and Faculty Senate may 153 appoint four members from their respective constituencies to terms
154 concurrent with that session of the Assembly. Excluding the presiding
155 officers, at least two of the appointed members from each constituent 156 assembly at a given time must also serve concurrently as members of the 157 constituent assembly responsible for their appointment.
- 158 b. The presiding officer of each constituent assembly serves as a voting 159 member of the Assembly concurrent with their term of office.
- 160 c. Each constituent assembly may appoint members to the Assembly in the 161 manner of its choosing and may fill vacancies as they occur with members 162 who will serve the balance of the term of the vacated member.
- 163 C. The Assembly may provide in its bylaws for appointment of additional non-voting 164 members to serve ex-officio.
165

166 Section 4.2: Exclusion

167

168 A voting member of the Assembly may not serve concurrently as a member of the Board
169 of Trustees of the University.
170

171 Section 4.3: Removal

172

173 Any member may be removed by affirmative vote of two-thirds of seated members of the 174 assembly and consent of the constituent assembly responsible for his or her appointment.

175

ARTICLE V: OFFICERS

176

177

Section 5.1: Positions

179

180

181

182

183

184

The officers of the Assembly are the Chair, the Executive Vice Chair, and the Vice Chair for Operations, who must be of different constituencies. Additionally, a ranking member must be appointed for each constituency not otherwise represented by the officers of the Assembly.

185

Section 5.2: Terms

186

187

188

The term for each office is June 1 to May 31.

189

Section 5.3: Election

190

191

192

193

194

- A. The organizational meeting for the next session of the Assembly shall occur after the adjournment of the final regularly scheduled meeting of the current session of the Assembly and prior to the beginning of the next session of the Assembly to ensure that the Assembly may organize before the next session begins.
- B. At the organizational meeting of the Assembly or at the first meeting after a vacancy arises, the Assembly must elect officers from its membership by secret ballot in closed session. The highest ranking non-returning member of the current session of the Assembly shall preside over the election of the Chair for following session. Where no such person exists, the longest consecutively serving member of the Assembly shall preside over the election of the Chair.
- C. Elections will utilize the exhaustive ballot system: until a candidate receives a majority of votes cast, the candidate receiving the fewest number of votes will be removed from the ballot and another round of votes cast.
 - a. If, after the floor is closed for nominations for specific officer position, only one candidate is nominated to be an officer, he or she will be seated immediately, unless a member of the Assembly opposes the nomination.
- D. As soon as possible after the officers have been elected, seated members of the constituency not represented by the officers must caucus and elect, following the same procedure as provided for the election of officers, a ranking member to represent their constituency.

The Chair:

217

218

- A. presides over meetings of the Assembly;
- B. serves as the spokesperson of the Assembly; and,

Cornell University University Assembly

- 219 C. transmits any formal recommendations, resolutions, or reports issued by the 220 Assembly to the appropriate recipients.
221

222 Sub-Section 5.4.2: Responsibilities of the Executive Vice Chair

223 The Executive Vice Chair:

- 224
- 225 A. presides over meetings of the Executive Board;
 - 226 B. receives and tracks reports, resolutions, and other items of business from 227 members of the Assembly and the chairs of its committees;
 - 228 C. prepares and distributes the agenda for each meeting of the Assembly to all 229 members of the Assembly and to the Office of the Assemblies at least twenty 230 four hours prior to the meeting;
 - 231 D. assists the Chair in compiling reports and materials as needed; and,
 - 232 E. fulfills the responsibilities of the Chair in his or her absence or if the position
233 is vacant.
234

235 Sub-Section 5.4.3: Responsibilities of the Vice Chair for Operations

236 The Vice Chair for Operations:

- 237
- 238 A. reviews and approves expenses under the discretionary budget of the 239 Assembly;
 - 240 B. monitors the activities of each committee of the Assembly;
 - 241 C. assures that each committee of the Assembly is properly staffed, consulting
242 with the Executive Board, the committee's chair, and the appropriate officers 243 of the constituent assemblies as needed; and,
 - 244 D. fulfills the responsibilities of the Executive Vice Chair in his or her absence or 245 if the position is vacant.
246

247 Sub-Section 5.4.4: Responsibilities of the Ranking Member

248 The ranking member:

- 249
- 250 A. serves as a voting member of the Executive Board;
 - 251 B. represents the interest of his or her constituency in meetings of the 252 Executive Board; and,
 - 253 C. resigns from office in the event that another member of his or her
254 constituency becomes an officer of the Assembly.
255

256 Section 5.5: Removal

257

258 The Assembly may remove any of its officers upon an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the 259 seated membership of the Assembly. Immediately thereafter, a new officer must be 260 elected from among the voting members of the Assembly for the balance of the term of 261 office.
262

ARTICLE VI: EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Assembly has an Executive Board (the Board) to manage its daily operation and to provide continuity of operation outside of the academic year.

Section 6.1: Membership

The Board consists of the officers and the ranking members of the Assembly.

Section 6.2: Authority during the academic year

The Board:

- A. prepares the agenda for each meeting of the Assembly;
- B. calls special meetings of the Assembly as needed; and,
- C. removes members from committees in cases where behavior or absence disrupts the sound operation of those committees.

Section 6.3: Emergency Authority

During periods between academic semesters and during university holidays, the Board may additionally:

- A. speak on behalf of the Assembly on matters where, in the opinion of the Board, a delay would prevent effective exercise of the Assembly's authority or hinder the efficient operation of institutional functions for which the Assembly is responsible; and,
- B. convene any ad hoc committees as needed to fulfill its responsibilities.

In taking any such actions, the Board must make a reasonable effort to involve all of its members, including those absent from campus, and to consult the chairs of any committees that the Assembly would ordinarily consult. The Chair must report such actions, including the results of any votes, at the first meeting of the Assembly that occurs after the actions are taken.

ARTICLE VII: CHANGES IN THE CHARTER AND BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY

- A. An affirmative vote of a majority of the seated members of the Assembly is required to amend the Bylaws of the Assembly, and an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the seated membership is required to amend the Charter.
- B. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws or the Charter of the Assembly must be publicized at least one week before any meeting where they are discussed or adopted. The Assembly may not adopt amendments to the Charter at the same meeting where they are introduced or modified, and the President of the University

Cornell University University Assembly

306 C. must approve such amendments before they may be implemented.
