II. Announcements & Presentations
   a. Student Assembly Elections
      i. I. Pavlov asked for those interested in the Womxn’s Issues seat to reach out to her at iap29@cornell.edu.
      ii. L. Zheng noted that the Elections Calendar has been amended. She clarified that the Elections Calendar is determined by the Director of Elections and the Office of Assemblies.
          1. There will be an information session on February 27, 2020 after the S.A. meeting.
          2. The registration deadline is now extended to Monday, March 2, 2020.
          3. The mandatory campaign meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 3, 2020.
      iii. J. Clancy asked for an explanation for the cause of the quick turnout that led to the announcement being so close to the beginning of the campaign period.
          1. L. Zheng responded that the communication process was delayed. The situation was not ideal and it is something they will work towards improving in the future.
   b. Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion C. Benedict gave the following updates:
      i. Wet’suwet’en Nation/Coastal GasLink Pipeline
          1. C. Benedict gave an overview of the situation in Northern British Columbia. Native American and Indigenous Students at Cornell (NAISAC) has issued a call for support. He explained that the Coastal GasLink company is trying to construct an oil pipeline through the sovereign territory of the Wet’suwet’en people. The Canadian Royal Mounted Police has been violently arresting protestors, tearing down blockades, and intimidating people to clear a path for pipeline construction. In solidarity, many First Nations around Canada have blockaded railroads. NAISAC is holding a drive to collect goods to support the Wet’suwet’en blockade in Ontario. He asked those able to donate items from a provided list to contact him. Supplies are to go to Ontario late Friday night or early Saturday morning.

ii. Diversity Innovation Funding approval
   1. C. Benedict noted the approval of the $1,500 request from the Pan-African Students Association for its “This Africk” fashion show.

c. O. Egharevba: Increasing S.A. Transparency Using Electronic Voting
   i. O. Egharevba gave a background of the initiative to use electronic voting. The rationale is to increase the S.A.’s profile as a student organization and further build trust with the people it serves. He gave an overview of his initiative process and three problems with the current voting system. First, the voting system does not scale, and it will become increasingly difficult to count votes accurately if the S.A. becomes larger in the future. Second, low attendance at most S.A. meetings mean that many of their votes are not known. People know how the S.A. voted, but not how individual representatives voted. Third, it encourages representatives to vote with the majority even if they have a different opinion.

   ii. O. Egharevba noted that the initial solution was to vote using iClickers and publish results on the S.A. minutes and website. However, with using iClickers, votes are not displayed at the time of meetings. People will have to look at next week’s agenda or meetings for the results. There are also questions of how to handle roll call votes and how to conduct secret ballots. There was also no specific timetable for implementation and it caused fatigue among the S.A. In addition, he stressed the need to provide more benefits that justify the monetary and nonmonetary costs.

   iii. O. Egharevba shared a solution to use specialized clickers that could be bought from Meridia Interactive Solutions. The clickers and software would be provided for them with no recurring fees. The application would enable votes and the speakers list to be displayed in real time. It would also make attendance-taking easier. There is also a fully customizable design, and they could potentially put the S.A. branding on it. The total cost would be $1275, including 28 clickers, 1 USB receiver/base station, shipping, and a $250 discount. The next steps would be to determine how to integrate the clickers with current S.A. rules, figure out where to place the screen, and introduce a resolution that would make logistical changes and secure funding to buy the equipment. He would like to determine how to integrate this with SA procedures and rules after February Break. By the end of March, there would be a resolution.

   iv. J. Feit commented that S.A. funds could be better spent on things including new microphones, speaker system, and website updating. He stated having trouble seeing the benefit of the clickers other than counting votes, and foresees substantial technological difficulties.

III. New Business
   a. S.A Resolution #38: Approving Special Projects Request for Black Students United
i. M. Adeghe introduced the resolution. The $5,000 request from Black Students United to travel to the National Museum of African American History in Washington, D.C. over February Break was approved by the Appropriations Committee. It will be a 24-hour trip and is open to the public.

ii. Motion to move the Resolution #38 to Business of the Day – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

iii. Motion to vote on Resolution #38 – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

b. S.A. Resolution #39: Approving Special Projects Request for Smart is Strong Foundation

i. M. Adeghe introduced the resolution and clarified that it does not need to be voted on to be approved. It can be voted on if the S.A. is trying to overturn it. The resolution approves $500 of Special Projects funding to the Smart is Strong Foundation in assisting with the funding for the International Women’s Day Conference.

c. S.A. Resolution #40: Reversing the Special Projects Funding Decision for Cornell Fashion Collective

i. M. Adeghe introduced the resolution to reverse the Special Projects Funding decision of $2,000 for Cornell Fashion Collective as it will be receiving funds from SAIFC.

ii. Motion to move the Resolution #40 to Business of the Day – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

iii. Motion to vote on Resolution #40 – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

d. S.A. Resolution #41: Creating an ad-hoc Committee for Comprehensive Housing Policy Review

i. C. Huang introduced the resolution to create an ad-hoc committee to deal with housing policy. She noted there are a lot of issues with housing and the resolution would create a channel for students to go to. There will be two co-chairs and six members—two of which will be from the S.A., two of which will be from the community and two of which will be from the Residential Student Congress.

ii. Motion to move Resolution #41 to Business of the Day – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

iii. Motion to vote on Resolution #41 – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

e. S.A. Resolution #42: Reducing the Number of Petition Signatures Needed for Certain At-Large Positions

i. T. Reuning introduced the resolution to reduce the number of petition signatures for certain at-large positions, including Womxn’s Issues Representative, Minority Liaison, LGBTQIA+ Liaison, First Generation Student Representative, and International Students Liaison. These positions represent marginalized communities, which are already smaller on campus. T. Reuning shared that when he was running, he had to out himself as transgender in order to obtain signatures.

ii. Y. Yuan shared concerns over line 39 stating the amendment will be effective immediately as the election rules have already been released. This change in the Bylaws may create confusion among petitioners.
1. C. Huang noted that the resolution would not constitute a Bylaws or Charter change, but rather a change to the election rules. It could be communicated through discussion with the Office of Assemblies.
2. G. Giambattista noted that they would need to ensure that everyone has the information to participate.

iii. B. Weintraub recognized that he is not a member of any marginalized community on campus. His concern speaks to the change it would make to the Womxn’s, Minority, International, and First Generation Student positions. By reducing the number of signatures required, there may be an idea created that these positions may require less of a commitment or participation, or reduced qualifications. It may send a message of not having to reach out to as many people. He suggested creating a separate resolution for the LGBTQIA+ Liaison seat and then voting separately.
1. M. Adeghe responded that there are a lot of seats that require 75 or less signatures. She has never been under the impression that there is a correlation between number of required signatures and qualifications.
2. L. Zheng raised a point of information. All of the college seats, except the Arts & Sciences Representative seat, requires 75 signatures. She agreed with M. Adeghe’s point.

iv. Y. Li stated that it may be unfair to change the rules. He proposed to have the resolution amended to be effective beginning the next election cycle,

v. M. Adeghe asked for a straw poll of “effective immediately” versus “effective in the Fall” to gauge whether it would be a hindering factor in approving the resolution.

vi. J. Feit stressed the importance of having the resolution passed and be effective immediately so they can continue to have a diverse assembly that accurately represents the student body. He encouraged retaining the resolution as written.

vii. O. Egharevba urged the importance of getting individuals from marginalized communities into student government. He shared concerns with changing the requirements after the start of the election.

viii. O. Egharevba made a motion to amend line 29 to replace “effective immediately” to “effective Fall 2020.”
1. Motion seconded.
2. L. Zheng indicated there is a second information session occurring soon and she has the Net IDs of everyone who attended the first session. It could help with getting out the information more quickly.
3. Dissent from M. Adeghe and T. Reuning. M. Adeghe said their mission with this resolution changes with this amendment. T. Reuning said they want to increase accessibility immediately.
4. Vote to vote on the amendment – approved with a vote of 12-8.
5. V. Xu asked if the college enrollment numbers have historically remained the same. It seems that A&S enrollment has historically decreased while enrollment with other colleges have largely remained the same. She has not seen issues in the past about not having enough people running.
6. I. Pavlov stated that adding this amendment feels like using an institutional barrier as a scapegoat for acting out of immediate change.

7. Y. Yuan said this would not be fair to other candidates.

ix. Motion to move this resolution until after the S.A. Resolution #30 panel – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

x. Motion to amend the agenda to move S.A. Resolution #30 before S.A. Resolution #41 – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.

IV. Business of the Day

a. S.A. Resolution #30: Urging Cornell University to Contribute Financial Support for the Summer 2020 Student Contribution Pilot Program

i. This resolution seeks to support waiving the Student Contribution Fee for low-income students pursuing non-paid summer opportunities over the summer.

ii. Panelist J. Davidoff introduced himself as a first generation, low-income student. He is the son of a single mother and is the first of his family of refugees to be born in America. He supported abolishing the Student Contribution Fee and implored the S.A. to pass this resolution.

iii. Panelist Mark identified himself as an undocumented student. He shared that his sister was previously admitted to Cornell but unable to attend due to financial limitations and an undocumented status. The Student Contribution Fee would have been too much. Ten years later, he is the first person from his school to go to an Ivy League institution and the second individual in his large family to attend college. He shared the hardships of sometimes not being able to eat and having no place to live. In addition, his work adds to the stress of academics.

iv. Panelist Brianna introduced herself as a junior. After deciding to attend Cornell, she worked five part-time jobs in high school to afford the Student Contribution Fee. After taxes, she was making about $6/hour. She shared that she is tens of thousands of dollars in student debt. She currently works three jobs and struggles to pay the Student Contribution Fee. She identified her educational influences on her younger siblings as an intense burden.

v. Panelist Marlena introduced herself and shared that during the second semester of junior year, her mother fell and broke her leg. They then discovered she had terminal cancer. She took a leave of absence to take care of her mother and support her family. As a working class student, she feels that the Student Contribution Fee is a barrier to education. She shared that it was a struggle to work during the summer to afford the student contribution.

vi. Panelist identified herself as a senior and shared that her mother was diagnosed and passed away last April. Being able to work during the summer and pay the student contribution fee is not the case for all students. She is currently working two jobs. There are many contributions that her low-income peers do at Cornell that is not monetary.

vii. SA member thanked the panelists for sharing their stories and taking the time to come. She asked for some examples of opportunities the panelists could take if they could have the pilot program installed.
1. Panelist Rachel shared that last summer, she wanted to work for a union in justice-oriented work. She was able to get some funding, but it did not cover lost wages. While she was able to take on the experience with financial support, it was still challenging because there were things she missed out on or could not do in her community.

viii. T. Reuning made a call to the question – approved with no dissent.
ix. Motion to vote on Resolution #30 – approved with a vote of 19-0-0.

V. Recess until 6:15

VI. Continued: New Business
a. Continued discussion on Resolution #42.
   i. I. Pavlov supported the resolution as a way to support intersectional feminism on campus.
   ii. S. Sun recommended scaling the number of required signatures to be reflective of the number of the members in the community. The international and first-gen communities are smaller and proportionally scaling the required number of signatures might be a stronger justification.
      1. M. Adeghe said they do not have those numbers and may not need or want to. The numbers may also be difficult to obtain for some communities.
   iii. J. Feit said he wanted a better understanding of what reservations some individuals may have. He feels there is no downside to enacting the resolution immediately.
   iv. M. Adeghe asked for a straw poll on whether S.A. members are comfortable with voting now.
      1. 6 members noted they are comfortable with voting.
      2. 11 members noted they would support the resolution as is.
      3. 7 members noted they would support the resolution if the amendment is passed.
   v. Motion to move the resolution to Business of the Day – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.
   vi. Motion to vote on the resolution.
      1. S.A. member made a dissent. He has a question he would like to ask.
      2. Motion failed with a vote of 8-9-1.
   vii. J. Clancy said he will vote for the resolution as is without the amendment. However, the communication should have been made clearer. It is not equitable to bring this up after the information session was held. This should not happen in the future.
   viii. L. Smith agreed with J. Clancy. He acknowledged it is a great resolution but it could hurt the credibility of the S.A. He asked for a committee to look into setting the number of seats based on proportion.
   ix. M. Baker said she does not feel the reduced number for the Womxn’s Representative seat is accurate given that women make up 53% of population. She suggested having two resolutions.
1. A. Adeghe responded she is not comfortable with having two resolutions. She noted the power dynamics and that womxn are not equal.

b. Motion to extend the meeting by 10 minutes – approved with a vote of 18-0-1.
   i. B. Weintraub asked why the resolution was not brought up earlier.
      1. SA member responded that they had their first spring meeting this Sunday. They did not want to wait to introduce this the next cycle and continue disenfranchising people.
   ii. O. Egharevba said he is not opposed to accessibility. However, he noted that the timing was controversial.
   iii. A. Adeghe made a motion to vote – approved with no dissent
   iv. Motion to vote on Resolution #42 – approved with a vote of 12-4-2.

c. Statement of Solidarity with Not Again SU – approved 18-0-0
   i. C. Benedict introduced a statement of solidarity with the Not Again SU movement at Syracuse University. The movement is protesting the lack of university response and Chancellor Kent Syverud’s lack of approving all of the demands that were listed by the Not Again SU movement last semester. He explained that students occupied a building and were all immediately suspended by the university.
   ii. J. Feit noted that the things transpiring at Syracuse University are disgusting representations of the hatred in this country. The right to protest is the only way things get done in this county and he supports these protests. He urged S.A. members that they have an obligation to stand up for those who do not have that privilege.
   iii. Motion to vote – approved with no dissent.
   iv. Motion to approve the statement of solidarity with Not Again SU – approved with a vote of 18-0-0.

d. Motion to extend the meeting by 5 minutes – approved with no dissent.

VII. Continued: Business of the Day
   a. S.A. Resolution #31: Amending the Student Assembly Charter to Create a Ticket System for the President and Executive Vice President Election
      i. Motion to table the resolution to February 27, 2020 – tabled with a vote of 16-0-1.
   b. S.A. Resolution #33: Changing The Name of the “LGBTQ+ Liaison At-Large” Position to “LGBTQIA+ Liaison At-Large”
      i. SA member made a motion to amend line 85 to add “queer” after “transgender” – resolution amended with a vote of 17-0-1.
      ii. Motion to vote – approved with no dissent.
      iii. Motion to vote on Resolution #33 – approved with a vote of 17-0-1.

VIII. Adjournment

Establishment of the Students with Disabilities Representative At-Large

ABSTRACT: This resolution is intended to increase representation and accessibility to Cornell undergraduates with disabilities on the Cornell Student Assembly

Sponsored by: Uche Chukwukere ‘21, Conan Gillis ‘21, Joseph Anderson ‘20

Whereas, The Cornell Student Assembly is charged with examining matters of interest to the undergraduate student community, and making proposals to the appropriate officers or decision-making bodies of the University.

Whereas, The Cornell Student Assembly has legislative authority over the policies of the Office of the Dean of Students and the Department of Campus Life, and establishes the undergraduate Student Activity Fee and guidelines for its distribution

Whereas, Accurate and fair representation on the Cornell Student Assembly should be the highest priority at all times

Whereas, The most marginalized communities should have utmost priority and assurance that they will be fairly and accurately represented on a governing body such as the Cornell Student Assembly

Whereas, Cornell University is committed to diversity and inclusiveness with the goal of providing an accessible, usable and welcoming environment for all Cornell community members, including those with disabilities

Whereas, Students with disabilities at Cornell University deserve and should be afforded the same rights and privileges of all members of the Cornell community and provided equitable representation on governing bodies with the legislative ability to affect all undergraduate students

Whereas, There is no representation for students with disabilities on the Cornell Student Assembly

Whereas, There is currently necessary representation for other marginalized affinity groups on the Assembly and there should be a continual push for the members of the Assembly to increase access and representation of communities in which they do not identify with Whereas, The Cornell Union for Disability Awareness is an alliance of people with disabilities and allies interested in celebrating our culture and making an impact on and off campus.

Whereas, According to Article IV: Membership, Section 1: Composition, 184 - 205:

- two at-large seats are to be reserved for candidates seeking to represent minority students; one at-large seat is to be reserved for candidates seeking to represent international students; one at-large seat is to be reserved for candidates seeking to represent women’s issues in relation to the broader Cornell community; one at-large seat is to be reserved for candidates seeking to represent First Generation College students; and one at-large seat is to be reserved for candidates seeking to represent the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer community.

Whereas, The following schools receive representation on Cornell’s Student Assembly:

1) College of Architecture, Arts and Planning, with 503 undergraduate students represented by 1 voting member as of Fall 2018;
2) College of Arts and Sciences, with 4,602 undergraduate students represented by 3 voting 23 members as of Fall 2018;
3) College of Human Ecology, with 1,221 undergraduate students represented by 1 voting 26 member as of Fall 2018;
4) School of Industrial and Labor Relations, with 977 undergraduate students represented by 29 by 1 voting member as of Fall 2018;
5) College of Engineering, with 3,203 undergraduate students represented by 2 voting 32 members as of Fall 2018;
6) School of Hotel Administration, with approximately 870 undergraduate students represented by 2 voting members as of Fall 2018;
7) College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, with approximately 3,100 undergraduate students represented by 2 voting members as of Fall 2018;

Be it therefore resolved, the position of Students with Disabilities Representative At-Large should be an established, voting, full-fledged seat on the Cornell Student Assembly.

Be it finally resolved, the following amendments be made to the Cornell Student Assembly Charter.

S.A. Resolution #63
Increasing the Grace Period on Cornell University Loans

ABSTRACT: This resolution recommends that Cornell University extend the grace period for Cornell University loans.

Sponsored by: Joe Anderson ‘20

Whereas, Cornell University provides university loans to students as part of their financial aid package;

Whereas, these loans do not accrue interest throughout their time at Cornell nor requires payment or accrue interest in the 6 months post-graduation;

Whereas, the COVID-19 Pandemic has caused financial struggles across our economy;

Whereas, some graduating students have struggled to find a job, are at risk at having their offer rescinded, have had their offer rescinded, or have had their start dates significantly pushed back;

Whereas, this puts immense pressure on these students to pay back any loans and interest, as they might not have a source of income;

Whereas, payment and interest accrual on Cornell University loans for graduating students will not start until January 1, 2021;

Whereas, some students might not have a stable stream of income at that time due to the fact that the COVID-19 Pandemic has unpredictable effects, due to a potential second wave;

Be it therefore resolved, that Cornell University extends the grace period by 6 months for a full grace period of 12 months;

Be it further resolved, that if Cornell University is not able to unilaterally extend the grace period, that students can individually petition to extend the grace period on a case-by-case basis as January 1, 2021 comes closer;

Be it finally resolved, that if one of these programs are set up that the University Bursar makes the program aware to students.

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate was founded in Fall 2019;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate was founded to address student needs and help students advocate for themselves at all levels of the University;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate dedicated three months to studying campus policies and procedures;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate dedicated the 2019-2020 Academic Term to meeting with the administration and faculty about existing policies;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate dedicates a director specifically to focus on Student and Campus Life;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has been accepting cases from students since the Fall of 2019 through the present date;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has been logging and documenting casework since our creation in Fall of 2019;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has been noting aspects of campus policy that we might be able to alter in order to improve the student experience and ensure equity in disciplinary procedures;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate examined and analyzed policies and procedures across companion universities to understand how Cornell’s policies compare;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has specifically logged cases brought forth because of lack of basic diversity and inclusion trainings for officials involved in community standard procedures;
Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has specifically logged cases that could have clearly benefited from restorative justice and mediation measures;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has specifically logged cases that highlight misconduct from advisors and a lack of tangible recourse when the advisors violate student trust;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has specifically logged cases that would have benefited from a more empathetic model from counselors advising codes procedures;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has specifically logged cases in which parties to a code violation expressed interest in having an undergraduate student serve in a counseling role;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in baseline restorative justice approaches, such as, the University of Pennsylvania has instituted the following programs: “Restorative Circles, Conflict Coaching, Mediation, Restorative Conferences, Workshops on Communication and Conflict Resolution skills, and Workshops on Restorative Circles. These services are available to all members of the Penn Community who seek to build community, or manage/resolve conflict. Additionally, restorative practices are considered by the Office of Student Conduct when resolving violations of the Code of Student Conduct when appropriate.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in baseline restorative justice approaches, such as, the University of Michigan provides Adaptable Conflict Resolution (ACR) in addition to Formal Conflict Resolution (FCR) as a restorative justice measure. ACR includes methods such as Conflict Coaching, Facilitated Dialogue, Restorative Justice Circles, Shuttle Negotiation, and Social Justice Mediation;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in increased student involvement in conduct procedures, such as, the University of Michigan has a student “Advisor Corps.” According to the University, “these advisors will be available to any student party involved in Statement proceedings (excluding mediations). All potential peer advisors in the Advisor Corps must successfully complete training provided by OSCR. OSCR will develop and conduct training in consultation with CSG.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in increased student involvement in conduct procedures, such as, the University of Virginia’s Judiciary Committee, composed of a First Year Committee, Educators, Investigators, and Counselors, is entirely student-run. Their constitution states that “To be eligible to be a candidate for election to the Judiciary Committee an undergraduate student must have completed three semesters of work toward a degree while graduate students must have completed one semester of work unless the student is enrolled in a one-year degree program. Each candidate for election shall be a full-time student and in the process of completing at least two full semesters of work in their particular school. No student on probation may be a candidate for election. If after election a member of the Committee is placed on probation their office shall become vacant.”;
Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in baseline restorative justice approaches, such as, Brown University ingrains restorative justice approaches within their Code of Conduct, including “restorative circles, restorative conferences, restorative board hearings, addressing conflict, repairing harm, and building community.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in increased Diversity and Inclusion Trainings for any parties involved in the code of conduct procedural process, such as, in 2018, Brown University assessed their Diversity and Inclusion procedures and published a Diversity and Inclusion Action Plan to address work that needs to be done;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in increased student involvement in conduct procedures, such as, Columbia University allows the respondent “to be accompanied to any meeting or hearing related to an incident of misconduct by the advisor(s) of his/her choice… Advisors may include but are not limited to family members, friends, counselors, therapists, clergy, attorneys, academic advisors, professors, and administrators.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in increased student involvement in conduct procedures, such as, Dartmouth College states in their policies and procedures that “Students responding to disciplinary allegations heard by the COS are entitled to have a single advisor present at their hearing. Students who report sexual misconduct or physical violence have the same right to an advisor. Students must identify their advisor to the JAO in writing. Only currently enrolled Dartmouth students, members of the Dartmouth faculty, and members of the Dartmouth administration may serve as advisors.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in baseline restorative justice approaches, such as, Dartmouth College has developed restorative justice approaches called its “Principles of Community.” Dartmouth states that “In [certain contexts], there are responses which are more effective and more in keeping with the aspirations of an academic community: expressions of disapproval in the exchange of different ideas through free and open discussion and debate, mediation, or other restorative processes.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in baseline restorative justice approaches, such as, Princeton University offers Informal Procedures as a restorative justice measure to violations of the Code of Conduct. According to their 2019 Rights, Rules, and Responsibilities, “The University encourages open and honest communication between members of the community. Most conflicts and differences of opinion between members of the University community can be resolved by the individuals directly confronting issues and jointly exploring alternatives. In addition, there are a variety of resources available to individuals who may be called upon to assist in informal conflict resolution.”;

Whereas, the Office of the Student Advocate has taken interest in increased student involvement in conduct procedures, such as, Princeton University states regarding their hearing procedures that, “The student may be accompanied at the committee hearing by an adviser, who must be a current member of the resident University community, and who may participate in the same manner as the student in the hearing.”

Whereas, Cornell University, in comparison with companion universities, is behind on its adoption of community standard procedures that include the undergraduate student voice;

Whereas, the Student Assembly has the unique opportunity to consider student input based on tangible casework data and take a stance on crucial procedural and policy changes;

Whereas, student members of the Cornell Judicial Codes Committee see a need for the undergraduate voice in the development of new codes procedures and policies;

Whereas, the attached procedures only pertain to student conduct, and not the conduct of faculty and staff;

Be it therefore resolved, that the Student Assembly acknowledges the careful collection of data and analysis completed by the Office of the Student Advocate in the 2019-2020 Academic Term;

Be it therefore resolved, that the Student Assembly endorses the change of the Campus Code of Conduct to reflect the procedures included in the attached appendix to this resolution;

Be it therefore resolved, that the Student Assembly requests acknowledgement from the University Assembly and Board of Trustees that the attached procedures are specifically what students want;

Be it therefore resolved, that a copy of this resolution with attached appendix is posted on the Office of Assemblies website for public comment/feedback;

Be it therefore resolved, that any inaction by levels of government consisting of non-student representatives shows a lack of regard for the student voice;

Be it finally resolved, that the University should adopt the attached procedural changes to the Campus Code of Conduct and Community Standards;

Code Procedures

1 INTRODUCTION

These procedures apply when a student is alleged to have violated the Cornell Student Code of Conduct ("Code"). Although these procedures incorporate certain principles associated with the legal system (such as fair process protections), the Code is at its foundation a set of behavioral standards embracing teaching and learning opportunities, whenever possible, to foster personal development and accountability. Cornell’s goal is to provide a safe environment for all members of the University community, to teach and educate students regarding appropriate conduct, and to address misconduct when it occurs.

These procedures establish a process for University administrative review, and do not seek to replicate substantive or procedural legal rules. Neither the Rules of Civil Procedure nor Rules of Evidence apply to these procedures, though principles of fairness and predictability inherent in such rules inform and provide guidance. These procedures are to be implemented in conjunction with the Code, where key definitions and authority (including jurisdiction) are described. The administrative bodies that manage and perform under these procedures are described in Section 2.

2 ADMINISTRATION OF THE CODE AND PROCEDURES

2.1 The Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards

The Director ("Director") of the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards ("OSCCS") manages the student conduct system and cases arising out of the Student Code of Conduct ("Code"). The Director receives and ensures proper investigation and adjudication of alleged violations of the Code, or of any other regulation as the University President or Board of Trustees may direct.

The fundamental role of the Director is to ensure that complaints are handled with fairness, integrity, and objectivity for all parties concerned, consistent with the educational and rehabilitative goals of the University’s student conduct system. The Director does not prosecute cases against students. The Director shall hire and train competent individuals to undertake careful, fair, and objective investigations of complaints and to serve as chairs of hearing panels. The Director is also responsible for the training and administration of the University Hearing and Review Panel, with the intention of ensuring fair and consistent adjudication, findings of responsibility and as appropriate, imposition of sanctions based on the circumstances of individual cases. Anyone can direct questions about the student conduct system to the OSCCS.

The Director shall be appointed by and reports to the Vice President for Student and Campus Life. The Vice President shall consult with the Student Assembly ("SA") and Graduate and Professional Student Assembly ("GPSA") prior to the Director’s appointment and shall request representatives from the SA and GPSA to serve on the search committee when a new Director is hired. The Director shall provide an annual report to the Vice President, the SA and the GPSA on the operations of the office and of the student conduct system. The Director shall undergo an annual review overseen by the Vice President (or designee). The Vice President shall request and thoughtfully consider feedback from the SA and GPSA as part of that annual review.
2.2 Office of the Student Code Counselors

The Office of the Student Code Counselors is part of the SA’s Office of the Student Advocate. Student Code Counselors (“Counselors”) provide free assistance and representation to both Complainants and Respondents within the Student Code of Conduct process.

Counselors are not attorneys and do not provide formal legal advice. Within the rules in these procedures governing the participation of non-parties, Complainants and Respondents may utilize Counselors exclusively, in addition to their own legal counsel, or may rely entirely on legal counsel of their choosing. Counselors explain how the student conduct system works and assist and support Complainants and Respondents at every stage of proceedings. The Lead Student Code Counselor (“Lead Counselor”), who manages the Office of Counselors, assigns individual Counselors to serve on individual matters. However, Complainants and Respondents may request specific Counselors, which request shall be honored to the extent practically possible. Complainants and Respondents may also request assignment of a new Counselor for good reason, which request shall be honored if practical and feasible in the discretion of the Lead Counselor. Counselors are required to adhere to strict confidentiality responsibilities and may not discuss a case within the community of other Counselors except as appropriate within the context of applicable procedures.

Each spring, the SA and GPSA, in consultation with the Director, shall select a Lead Counselor to manage the Office of Student Code Counselors for the following academic year from a group of no more than three individuals nominated by the Counselors. The Lead Counselor must be an undergraduate, graduate or professional student, and have previously served for at least two years as a Counselor. The normal term of appointment is one year; however, this individual may be reappointed for a second term. (In the first two years of operation of this new office, the SA and GPSA in consultation with the Director, may appoint any duly qualified person to serve as the Lead Counselor.) The Office of the Student Code Counselors shall create the procedures used in nominating candidates for Lead Counselor.

The SA and the GPSA, in consultation with the Director, shall set relevant qualifications for the Counselors, along with an application, selection and training process to be implemented by the Director. Counselors may be undergraduate, graduate, or professional students and will be appointed by the Lead Counselor from nominations supplied by the SA and the GPSA. To support an empathetic and knowledgeable approach to all conduct proceedings, Counselors will be trained and assigned to assist both Complainants and Respondents. Counselors will recognize that the goals of the Code are focused on education, rehabilitation and accountability, and shall treat parties, witnesses and each other with respect and consideration. Counselors may be reappointed by the Lead Counselor for continued one-year terms so long as their service is deemed exemplary, and they remain students at the University.

2.3 The Hearing and Review Board

The Hearing and Review Board is a group of at least 55 members appointed from nominations submitted by the Student Assembly (“SA”), the Graduate and Professional Student Assembly (“GPSA”), the Faculty Senate and the Employee Assembly. The Board shall include at least 25 students, 15 faculty members, and 15 nonfaculty employees. The Assemblies and Senate shall solicit applications from interested faculty, students and staff on an annual basis and submit them to the Director no later than May 1 of each year. All applications shall be confidentially shared with the Executive Committees of the SA and GPSA for review and evaluation. Together with those committees, the Director shall make appointments. The Director may also make emergency appointments on a temporary basis. No person shall serve on the Members of the Hearing and Review Board are typically appointed for two-year staggered terms beginning in June 1 of the year appointed. Any appointment to fill a vacancy or to address an emergency shall become effective immediately. The Director shall have the authority, in consultation with the SA and GPSA Executive Committees, to remove a member of the Board if the member is reasonably deemed to not be honoring their commitment to communicate promptly regarding hearings, to serve on panels, to participate ethically in hearings, and otherwise to participate responsibly in this process.

2.4 The Panel Chair

The Director shall hire a professional Panel Chair to guide Hearing Panel proceedings with appropriate training and expertise to manage technical questions and rulings. The Panel Chair does not vote on individual cases. Instead, the Panel Chair addresses the many procedural and evidentiary matters that arise under these procedures in a fair and consistent manner, across many individual cases and proceedings. The intent of appointing a trained Panel Chair is to afford consistency, fairness and professionalism in all cases proceeding to hearings under the Code.

2.5 University Hearing Panels

A five-person panel of the Hearing and Review Board shall adjudicate cases under the Code. Panels are chosen through a random process but shall be appointed to include three students, one faculty, and one nonfaculty member.

2.6 University Review Panels

A three-person panel of the Hearing and Review Board shall hear appeals under the Code. Panels are chosen through a random process but shall be appointed to include one student, one faculty, and one nonfaculty member. The appointed faculty member serves as the Review Panel Chair.

2.7 Training

Every person serving in an official capacity or role under these procedures shall receive training from the Director or other appropriate university experts appropriate to their position. In addition, training focused on diversity, equity and inclusion that is approved by the Presidential Advisers on Diversity and Equity ("PADE") shall be required on an annual basis. PADE shall solicit the involvement of leaders of diverse and representative groups from the student community to assist in the development and vetting of this training.

3 DESIGNATION AS COMPLAINTANT AND RESPONDENT

These procedures distinguish between Reports and Formal Complaints. A Report of alleged prohibited conduct is often the first contact with the OSCCS. A Formal Complaint is filed with the Director in writing, and is required for certain processes (commencing with required notifications and investigation) to be initiated under these procedures. Any person providing an initial Report or filing a Formal Complaint under these procedures will be designated the “Complainant.” A person providing an initial Report or filing a Formal Complaint of interpersonal misconduct committed against that individual, such as assault and endangerment, harassment and hazing, is an “Individual Complainant.” These procedures afford certain additional rights to Individual Complainants.

University units are expected to designate a specific individual or individuals to serve in the role of institutional Complainant for cases brought under the Code, and to represent institutional concerns regarding potential misconduct. Further, such institutional representatives (for example, from Residence Life or Fraternity and Sorority Life), may provide additional support to Individual Complainants in cases where violations of the Code have potentially affected both individual(s) as well as University concerns.

A student or University-registered organization against whom a Report or Complaint has been made will be designated the “Respondent.”

Both the Complainant and the Respondent are referred to as “party” or “parties” throughout these procedures.

4 EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE PROCEDURES

The effective date of these procedures is [TBD].

These procedures will apply in all cases where a Report or Formal Complaint of alleged prohibited conduct is made on or after [TBD].

Where the date of the alleged prohibited conduct precedes the effective date of these procedures or a subsequent update to these procedures, the definitions of prohibited conduct in existence at the time of the alleged conduct will be used.

These procedures, however, will be used to investigate and resolve all Complaints made on or after the effective date of these procedures or subsequent updates to these procedures, regardless of when the conduct occurred.

5 TIME LIMIT TO FILE COMPLAINTS

To promote timely and effective review, the University strongly encourages persons with knowledge of possible violations of the Code to make Reports or file Formal Complaints as soon as possible, preferably within one year of the alleged prohibited conduct. A delay may affect the Director’s ability to gather relevant and reliable information, contact witnesses, investigate thoroughly and respond meaningfully, and may also affect the imposition of appropriate discipline upon a Respondent who has engaged in prohibited conduct.

While prompt reporting is strongly encouraged, the Director will accept and review any Report or Formal Complaint that is filed under these procedures as long as the Respondent was a “student,” at the time of the subject conduct and remains a “student” as defined by the Code, (e.g., has not graduated or permanently left the University).[1] If the Respondent is no longer a student at the time of the Formal Complaint, and the Director is unable to pursue resolution, that office will assess whether any remedial steps can be taken to address any prohibited conduct or its effects on the Complainant or others. Special circumstances and the University’s continued assertion of jurisdiction may apply where a student leaves the University to avoid a student conduct charge or its disposition.
6 COMPUTATION OF DEADLINES

In computing any time period specified in these procedures, the day of the event, act, or default that initiates the period will be excluded.

7 THE RESPONSE TO A REPORT OF PROHIBITED CONDUCT

7.1 Initial Assessment

Upon receipt of a Report (or Formal Complaint) alleging that a student or University-registered organization has violated the Code, the Director[2] will make an initial assessment of the information and work to address any immediate health or safety concerns. Where the identity of an Individual Complainant is known, the Director will ensure that the Individual Complainant receives a written explanation of available resources and options and is offered the opportunity to meet promptly to discuss those resources and options. Where the identity of an Individual Complainant is unknown, the Director will assess the nature and circumstances of the Report (or Formal Complaint), including whether it provides information that identifies the potential Individual Complainant, the potential Respondent, any witnesses, and/or any other third party with knowledge of the reported incident, and the Director will take reasonable and appropriate steps to respond to the complaint.

7.2 Actions Following Initial Assessment

7.2.1 Where the Complainant Seeks Resolution Under These Procedures

In any case where the Complainant reports prohibited conduct and requests resolution under these procedures, the Director will move forward. Initiation of this process requires the Complainant to submit a signed, written Formal Complaint, if one has not already been filed.

7.2.2 Where the Complainant Requests That No Formal Complaint Be Pursued Under These Procedures

The University will generally honor an Individual Complainant’s choice not to file or withdraw a Formal Complaint. Where an Individual Complainant declines to participate in an investigation, the Director’s ability to meaningfully investigate and respond to a report may be limited. However, the University may elect, particularly in cases involving threats to personal safety or inherent public safety considerations such as interpersonal violence, harassment, assault or hazing, to evaluate whether doing so will adequately mitigate the risk of harm to the Individual Complainant or other members of the University community. The Director will consider the following factors, among others, when determining whether to honor the request that no formal resolution be pursued under these procedures:

1. Whether the Respondent has a history of violent behavior or is a repeat offender;
2. Whether the incident represents escalation in prohibited conduct;
3. The increased risk that the Respondent will commit additional acts of interpersonal misconduct;
4. Whether the Respondent used a weapon or force;
5. Whether the Complainant is a minor;
6. Whether the University possesses other means to obtain evidence such as security footage or other tangible evidence; and
7. Whether available information reveals a pattern of perpetration at a given location or by a particular group.

Regardless of whether an Individual Complainant chooses to file or participate in an investigation of a Formal Complaint, the Director will assist an Individual Complainant with reasonable and available accommodations or interim measures in appropriate cases, with fairness towards and notice to the Respondent. Interim measures such as housing or academic/scheduling accommodations, referrals to counseling, or other supportive or protective measures are designed to advance and balance a number of goals:

- to support and protect the safety and health of the Individual Complainant, the Respondent, the University’s educational environment, and the University community;
- to deter retaliation; and
- to preserve the integrity of the investigation and resolution process pursuant to these procedures.

The Director may also take proactive steps, such as training or awareness efforts, to address misconduct in a general way that does not identify the Individual Complainant.

7.2.3 Director’s Determination that the Complainant’s Request(s) Cannot Be Honored

Where the Director determines that the office cannot honor the Individual Complainant’s request that no complaint be pursued under these procedures, the Director will promptly initiate the investigation process by filing a Formal Complaint on behalf of the University community. The Director will notify the Individual Complainant that the office intends to proceed and that it will take actions to protect and assist the Individual Complainant, including reasonable efforts to protect the privacy of the Individual Complainant. The Individual Complainant is not required to participate in any proceedings that follow.

7.2.4. Alternative Dispute Resolution and Summary Disposition

It is the intention of the Code to foster a system of that prioritizes accountability, education and the growth of students as responsible community members. For this reason, these procedures enable the Director to handle many reports (or Formal Complaints) in a flexible way to address the alleged misconduct promptly and, in a manner emphasizing education, restorative justice, and rehabilitation where these are appropriate. Towards this end, the Director may also recommend that the parties explore restorative justice opportunities, alternative dispute resolution and/or for any Respondent to undertake voluntary AOD screening, education and prevention programming, at any time, rather than continuing under these Procedures. A Respondent need not accept responsibility for the prohibited conduct in order for such referrals to be made. Similarly, either the Complainant or the Respondent may request to engage in alternative dispute resolution or restorative justice processes at any point in the process. Such a request will be carefully considered by the Director, with opportunity for input from both parties if only one has requested diversion, and granted or denied at the Director’s discretion.

The Director also has discretionary authority to resolve charges that do not involve interpersonal misconduct (such as assault and endangerment, harassment and hazing), upon completion of an initial assessment when the Respondent agrees. In such cases, the Director and the Respondent may agree, in writing, to any resolution such as restitution, community service, alcohol or other drugs (“AOD”) screening, education and prevention programming, or other remedy for the alleged offense(s). Matters involving interpersonal misconduct involve the full involvement of the Individual Complainant under Alternate Resolution, Section 14, unless the Individual Complainant has chosen not to participate in the proceedings.

8 TEMPORARY SUSPENSIONS

8.1 Temporary Suspensions Pending Resolution
In consultation with appropriate University officials, the Director or other Presidential delegate[3] has discretionary power temporarily to suspend a Respondent pending resolution of the underlying case where immediate action is necessary to protect the Complainant or the University community. Temporary Suspension may include the withdrawal of any or all University privileges and services, including class attendance, participation in examinations, utilization of University premises and facilities, and in the case of University-registered organizations, recognition by the University, as determined by the Director or designee.

Since the underlying allegation of prohibited conduct has not yet been adjudicated on the merits, a Temporary Suspension may be imposed only when less restrictive measures are deemed insufficient to protect the Complainant or the University community. In determining whether a Temporary Suspension is appropriate, the following factors, among others, should be considered:

- whether the Respondent has a history of violent behavior or is a repeat offender;
- whether the incident represents escalation in unlawful conduct;
- whether there are facts indicating a risk that the Respondent will commit additional acts of interpersonal misconduct or violence; and
- whether there represents reasonable basis of concern for retaliatory acts;
- whether there exists reasonable basis for concern over possible harm to the safety of others involved or the campus community generally;
- whether the Respondent used a weapon or force.

8.2 Review of Temporary Suspensions of Students and Temporary Suspensions of University-Registered Organizations
The Respondent may file a written request to lift the Temporary Suspension with the University Hearing and Review Board. The Director may file a response. Three members of the Board (one student, one faculty, and one nonfaculty member) shall serve as a Review Panel. The Review Panel will meet to consider the request to lift the temporary suspension within five (5) business days of receiving the Complainant’s request, with exceptions only for extraordinary cause. If the Review Panel determines that good cause for the Temporary Suspension is inadequate or absent, that other less restrictive alternatives are available, or that circumstances have changed so that the suspension is no longer necessary, the Temporary Suspension will be immediately lifted. The Review Panel may simultaneously provide the Director with guidance regarding appropriate alternate interim measures, and such alternatives are within the Director’s continuing authority. The Review Panel’s decision is final; there is no further right of appeal.

9 NOTICE TO COMPLAINANT AND RESPONDENT OF DIRECTOR’S ACTIONS

Cornell University Student Assembly □www.CornellSA.com
The Director will inform the Complainant and the Respondent of any actions undertaken that will directly affect either party, including the filing of a Formal Complaint.

10 NOTICE TO PARTIES OF A FORMAL COMPLAINT

Upon receipt of a Formal Complaint, the Director will notify the Complainant and the Respondent, in writing, of the commencement of an investigation and provide both parties with a copy of the Complaint, the Code, and these procedures. Such notice will:

- identify the Complainant and the Respondent;
- specify the alleged prohibited conduct and its date, time, and location, to the extent known;
- specify the factual allegations pertaining to the prohibited conduct;
- specify any sanctions that may be imposed, including the University’s transcript notation policy;
- identify the investigator;
- include information about the parties’ respective rights and obligations under the Code of Conduct and these procedures;
- inform the parties of the availability of alternative dispute resolution and restorative justice processes for resolving complaints;
- inform the parties of their right to seek the assistance of a Counselor/advisor or attorney and a support person for emotional support, all of whom may accompany the respective parties to meetings and proceedings;
- inform the parties of the range of available resources, including mental health and academic support resources;
- explain the prohibition against retaliation; and
- instruct the parties to preserve any potentially relevant evidence, whatever its form.

11 COUNSELORS/ADVISORS AND SUPPORT PERSONS

At all stages under these procedures, both the Complainant and Respondent will be afforded the assistance of an advisor provided through the Office of the Student Code Counselors to assist and advise. Alternatively, each party has the right to select and consult with an advisor and/or legal counsel of their own choosing. Both the Complainant and Respondent also have the right to a support person of their choice.

Counselors/advisers and support persons may be any person, including an attorney, who is not a party or witness or otherwise involved in the case. A Counselor/advisor and a support person may accompany the party to all meetings, such as investigative interviews, and proceedings, but it is expected that the parties will speak on their own behalf, and that Counselors/advisers and support persons will not interfere with meetings or proceedings. During hearings, Counselors/advisors and support persons may confer with the party, and submit written requests and objections to the Hearing Chair on the party’s behalf, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Chair. Throughout the proceedings, Counselors/advisors and support persons may also help the party prepare written submissions.

By accepting the role of Counselor/advisor or support person, such persons agree to comply with the rules and processes set forth in these procedures, including rules regarding both process and party privacy requirements. In unusual cases where either the Director or Panel Chair determines that a Counselor/advisor or support person’s conduct undermines the integrity of these procedures, is abusive towards the other party, or has a serious conflict of interest, the Counselor/advisor or support person will be prohibited from continuing to serve in that case. The affected party will be permitted a reasonable amount of time to obtain a substitute Counselor/advisor or support person and acquaint that person with the case.

12 WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS

For all written submissions permitted by these procedures, other than the written objections and requests specifically permitted during hearings, the documents must be submitted by the individual parties.
Written submissions from a Counselor/advisor, support person, or other individual made on behalf of a party, other than the written objections and requests specifically permitted during hearings, will not be included in the investigative or hearing records. Where a form has been developed by the Director for a written submission, the party must use the form for the submission. Where required by these procedures, a party must sign their written submission.

13 OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE TRUTHFUL INFORMATION

At all stages of the process, all Cornell University community members are required to provide truthful information. “Furnishing false information to the University with intent to deceive” is prohibited and independently subject to disciplinary sanctions under the Code. This provision does not apply to reports made or information provided in good faith, even if the facts alleged are not later substantiated.

14 DUTY TO COOPERATE

All members of the University community are expected to cooperate and participate in inquiries, investigations, and resolutions of Reports and Formal Complaints under these procedures. However, Individual Complainants and other alleged victims of interpersonal misconduct such as assault and endangerment, harassment and hazing, are not required to participate and may not be charged with violating the duty of cooperation.

15 ALTERNATE RESOLUTION OF A FORMAL COMPLAINT[A1]

The parties or the Director may seek to resolve a Formal Complaint of prohibited conduct through Alternate Resolution at any time. Participation in Alternate Resolution is entirely voluntary; the Director will neither pressure nor compel either party to participate in the process or to agree to any specific terms.
Both the Complainant and the Respondent must agree to explore Alternate Resolution as a potential means of resolution. The parties are strongly encouraged to consult with their Counselor/advisor and any support persons during the Alternate Resolution process. Even if both parties request Alternate Resolution, the Director has discretion to determine whether the matter is appropriate for that process.

The Director will manage the Alternate Resolution process and have access to all University records in the matter, including any records or reports prepared during an investigation. The Director may personally conduct Alternative Resolution or utilize mediators or others with appropriate expertise to support the process through consultations with both parties. The Director ultimately documents the proposed terms of a potential Alternate Resolution agreement. Such terms may include, but are not limited to, any sanctions or remedies that could be imposed by a Hearing Panel after a hearing under these proceedings.

The investigation will be paused during the Alternate Resolution process. At any time before a written agreement is effective (see below), the Complainant or the Respondent may withdraw from the Alternate Resolution process, and the Director may also, at their discretion, terminate the process. If the Alternate Resolution process is terminated for any reason, the matter continues under these procedures. For this reason, the investigator will not participate in an Alternate Resolution process.

If both parties are satisfied with the Director’s recommendation, the matter will be resolved with a written agreement to be executed by both parties. The Director will provide each party, separately, with a copy of the proposed agreement for the party to review, sign, and return. Once a party has returned the signed agreement to the Director, the party has two (2) business days to reconsider and withdraw from the agreement by notifying the Director in person or in writing. If either party withdraws from the agreement, the Formal Complaint will be resolved according to these procedures. Once an agreement is effective, the parties may not appeal the agreement.

If the Respondent agrees to an Alternate Resolution that provides for a suspension, withdrawal, or dismissal (i.e. expulsion) from the University, there will be a transcript notation consistent with University policy. The parties are expected to honor and comply with the terms of the Alternate Resolution. Later noncompliance may be subject to proceedings under the Code.

To protect both parties’ confidential disclosures within the Alternate Resolution process, if the matter moves back to the Formal Complaint resolution process, neither the Director nor the parties will disclose to the investigator, Panel Chair, University Hearing Panel, or University Review Panel either the fact that the parties had participated in Alternate Resolution or any information learned during the process.

16 THE PARTIES’ PARTICIPATION IN THE INVESTIGATION AND HEARING PROCESSES

Both the Complainant and the Respondent may decline to participate in the investigation and/or hearing. However, the Director may continue without a party’s participation, completing the investigation, and the Hearing Panel may meet, reach findings, and issue sanctions based on the record available.

16.1 Declining to Participate in the Investigation

Parties are expected to cooperate in the process, including the investigative stage and interviews. If a party declines to participate in investigative interviews or other aspects of the investigative process, the party will generally forfeit the opportunity at the hearing to give a written opening statement, testify, and give oral and written closing statements, absent demonstration of compelling circumstances that reasonably prevented the party from cooperating in the process. The potential for or pendency of a related civil or criminal court proceeding shall not constitute compelling circumstances. A party who later seeks to participate may file a written request with the Panel Chair. No request for participation under this Section will be granted to a party who failed to request a postponement or otherwise timely explain to the investigator why they were unable to engage with the investigation process prior to filing the request. If the Panel Chair agrees that non-participation was justified by compelling circumstances, they will assess whether the investigation should be reopened or whether the party should instead be permitted to file a written statement for consideration by the Hearing Panel. In determining what level of participation (and resultant delays) are appropriate, the Panel Chair shall consider fairness to the opposing party and the University’s legitimate interest in resolving the matter. The Panel Chair’s decisions on such requests to reopen are final and are not subject to further review.

16.2 Declining to Attend or Participate in the Hearing

Parties are expected to participate in the hearing. If, despite being notified of the date, time, and location of the hearing (at their last known contact information), either party is not in attendance, the hearing may proceed, findings may be reached and applicable sanctions may be imposed. In addition, the parties are not required to testify at a hearing and the Hearing Panel will not draw a negative inference from a party's election to remain silent. Where a party declines to testify, the Hearing Panel’s ability to hear information necessary to make an informed decision in that party’s favor may be limited and the Hearing Panel will render a decision on the record and the evidence before it.

17 CONSOLIDATION OF INVESTIGATIONS AND HEARINGS UNDER THESE PROCEDURES

At the discretion of the Director, multiple reports or Formal Complaints under these procedures that are factually related will be joined in one investigation whether they involve single or multiple Complainants or Respondents.

At the discretion of the Panel Chair, in consultation with the investigator, multiple Formal Complaints, whether or not joined in one investigation, and multiple investigations under these procedures may be joined in one hearing if doing so is likely to result in reliable and more efficient outcomes without causing prejudice to a party or parties or confusion for the fact finders. In determining whether to consolidate, the Panel Chair will provide the parties with an opportunity to explain their preferences for consolidated or severed hearings. In all hearings involving multiple Respondents, the Hearing Panel will consider individually the sanctions and remedies appropriate for each Respondent.

18 INVESTIGATION OF A FORMAL COMPLAINT

18.1 Overview of Investigations of a Formal Complaint

The investigation is designed to be timely, thorough, and impartial and to provide for a fair and reliable gathering of the facts. All individuals involved in the investigation, including the Complainant, the Respondent, and any witnesses, will be treated with fairness and respect. The investigation will generally include individual interviews of the Complainant, the Respondent, and relevant witnesses. Upon completion of the investigation, the investigator will prepare a final investigative record and an investigative report. The investigative record is a compilation of statements by the parties and witnesses

as well as other evidence gathered by the investigator. The investigative report explains the scope of the investigation and summarizes the information gathered. The investigator does not make any determination or recommendations as to responsibility, other than to make an assessment, in consultation with the Director, as to whether there is sufficient evidence for the case to proceed. The absence of an element necessary to determine responsibility for a subject charge is sufficient cause to decline to proceed on that charge. In the event of a hearing, the final investigative record and report become part of the hearing record.

The Complainant and the Respondent will have an equal opportunity to participate in the investigation, including an equal opportunity to be heard, submit evidence, and suggest witnesses who may have relevant information. Specifically, during the investigation, each party will have the opportunity to:

- be interviewed by the investigator;
- review their own interview statements prior to the statements being distributed to the other party and included in a draft investigative record;
- provide evidence to the investigator;
- suggest witnesses to be interviewed by the investigator;
- propose questions to be asked of witnesses and the other party; and
- review a draft investigative record and comment on it, in writing, before the investigator finalizes the record and prepares an investigative report.

At the hearing, the Hearing Panel will rely upon the final investigative record and report as well as any additional statements and information provided to the Hearing Panel pursuant to the procedures set forth below.

18.2 Time Frame of the Investigation

The investigation will be completed as expeditiously as possible, commensurate with its complexity. The investigator will establish reasonable time limits for the various stages of the investigation, including meetings and deadlines for any submissions or responses, and the parties shall comply with these time limits. The parties may request extensions that may be granted, if reasonable, at the discretion of the investigator. Extensions granted to one party will be granted to the other party. Delays simply to prolong the process will not be permitted, and failure to meet deadlines will generally result in forfeiture of a party’s ability to participate in that aspect of the investigation. Subject to a demonstration of compelling circumstances as described in section 16.1 above, a party who declines or fails to participate in a meeting or interview, provide evidence, or suggest witnesses, waives their right to do so upon the issuance of the final investigative record and report.

18.3 Investigative Interview Process

The parties have the opportunity to request in writing witnesses they would like the investigator to interview and offer questions and topics they would like the investigator to ask of witnesses, themselves, and/or the other party. The investigator has the discretion to determine the relevance of any proffered witnesses or questions, and, accordingly, the investigator will determine which witnesses to interview and questions to be asked. In general, the investigator will not consider as relevant witnesses who are offered solely for the purpose of providing evidence of a party’s character.
Investigative interviews with the parties and any witnesses may be audio recorded at the discretion of the investigator. At the start of a recorded interview session, the investigator will inform an interviewee that the session is being audio recorded. Parties and witnesses will receive copies of any audio recordings of their own interviews. The parties will be provided with access to listen to any audio recordings of other witnesses and/or other party interviews upon request during business hours at a secure and private campus location, with access facilitated by the Director. All persons being interviewed, including the parties, are prohibited from recording interviews.

In the event of a failure rendering an audio recording of an interview inaudible in whole or in part, the investigator will either reconstruct the interview with input from the interviewee or re-conduct the interview, as the investigator deems appropriate. The reconstructed interview statement will become part of the investigative record. A recording failure will not constitute grounds for appeal.

18.4 Evidentiary Materials

The investigator will gather relevant available evidentiary materials, including physical evidence, documents, communications between the parties, and electronic records and media as appropriate. The parties may request in writing the evidentiary materials they would like the investigator to obtain. The investigator has the discretion to determine the relevance of any requested materials, and, accordingly the investigator will determine what materials to seek to obtain.

18.5 Expert Testimony and Materials

If the investigator determines that expertise on a topic will assist the Hearing Panel in making its determinations, upon the investigator’s own initiative or at the request of a party, the investigator may include in the investigative record medical, forensics, technological, or other expert testimony and materials (such as writings and recordings) that the investigator deems relevant and reliable. The investigator has the discretion to determine the relevance and reliability of any expert testimony and materials, and, accordingly, the investigator will determine what, if any, expert testimony and materials will be included in the investigative record. Requested expert testimony or materials not included in the investigative record will not be considered by the Hearing Panel. The results of polygraph tests and other "lie-detection" techniques are inadmissible in proceedings under these procedures.

18.6 Evidence to be Excluded or Redacted from the Record

At the request of a party or witness, the investigator during the investigation or the Panel Chair during the hearing process, may exclude and, as necessary, redact the following content:

1. Past Findings: During both the investigation and any hearing to determine responsibility, participants in this process may request exclusion of evidence of their own past school disciplinary findings. Such past findings may be probative and thus admissible, however, to demonstrate a pattern of misconduct, at the discretion of the Panel Chair. Such findings are regularly admissible at the stage of the hearing for determining sanctions.

2. Mental Health Treatment and/or Diagnosis: Generally, during both the investigation and any hearing to determine responsibility, participants in this process may exclude evidence of their own mental health diagnosis and/or treatment. However, any party who wishes to have the Hearing Panel consider mental health information that the party considers favorable and relevant to their case, must voluntarily share such information with the investigator for inclusion in the investigative record.
3. Sensitive Personal Identifying Information and Medical Records: Throughout these proceedings, sensitive personal identifying information, such as Social Security numbers and irrelevant information contained in medical records, will be excluded. Exclusions and redactions will be noted and thereby become part of the investigative record. Excluded or redacted content not included in the investigative record will not be considered by the Hearing Panel. The parties should make all requests for exclusions and redactions to the investigator during the investigation prior to the issuance of the final investigative record and report.

18.7 Draft Investigative Record and the Parties’ Review

Upon completion of the investigation, the investigator will prepare and provide to the parties an electronic or hard copy of a draft investigative record. The investigative record is a compilation of the investigative interviews, evidentiary materials, and expert testimony and materials, if any, and includes:

- transcripts (but not audio files) of all interviews by the investigator with the parties and any witnesses, if applicable; and
- copies of any documents, electronic records, and media and photographs or descriptions of physical materials collected during the course of the investigation and not excluded from the investigative record under these procedures.

The parties will have five (5) business days to review the draft investigative record and submit in writing:

- comments about content, including requests for redaction;
- requests for additional meetings with the investigator; and
- requests for the investigator to conduct further investigation or questioning.

The parties may request extensions in the review period that will be granted, if reasonable, at the discretion of the investigator. Any extension granted to one party will be granted to the other party. Delays simply to prolong the process will not be permitted and failure to make submissions within five (5) business days or any approved extensions will result in a forfeiture of the right to do so later.

The parties’ written comments and requests will become part of the final investigative record.

The investigator has discretion whether to conduct any additional requested meetings, interviews, or questioning.

18.8 Final Investigative Record and Report

The investigator will issue a final investigative record and an investigative report. In the report, the investigator will explain the scope of the investigation and summarize the information gathered during the investigation. At their discretion, the investigator may identify contested and uncontested facts, highlight inconsistencies, credibility issues and observations and address relevancy of evidence. The investigator will not render an opinion on responsibility, other than to make the determination as to whether there is sufficient evidence to proceed to a hearing (see below).

19 DISMISSAL OF A FORMAL COMPLAINT
The Director may dismiss a Formal Complaint and close a case at any stage of proceedings where the Director determines:

- the subject matter of the complaint or the individual against whom the complaint has been filed are not subject to the University’s jurisdiction under these procedures; or,
- the facts set forth in the Formal Complaint do not constitute prohibited conduct under the Code; or,
- the Complainant fails or refuses to cooperate with the investigation such that the investigator is materially hindered in their ability to investigate, including where the Complainant cannot be located, the Complainant fails or refuses to be available for interviews or meetings, or the Complainant fails to provide necessary information; or,
- the investigator concludes, after appropriate investigation, that a Hearing Panel would not have a reasonable factual basis on which to find that the Respondent committed the prohibited conduct alleged.

If the Director determines that a Formal Complaint should be dismissed, the Director will provide the Complainant with a written decision explaining the reasons for the dismissal and notify the Complainant of the dismissal. The Complainant may ask the Hearing Panel to review the Director’s decision to dismiss. Such review must be requested within ten (10) business days in the form of a letter explaining why the dismissal is erroneous, and shall include any written evidence in support of the Complainant’s position. The materials are to be submitted to the Director, who will forward them to the Hearing Panel and the Panel Chair.

The Director will also notify the Respondent that a request for review has been filed and provide a copy of the Complainant’s letter and any supporting materials to the Respondent. The Respondent may respond in writing to the Complainant’s request for review of the dismissal in a letter to the Hearing panel no later than ten (10) business days from the date of such notification.

The Panel Chair, in consultation with the Hearing Panel, will establish a reasonable process and timeline for handling the matter. The Hearing Panel may review the matter absent a hearing and based solely upon the written materials prepared, including the Director’s reasons underlying the decision to dismiss. The Panel Chair may request a hearing on the respective oral positions of the parties only where the Panel Chair feels it is necessary in advance of a Board decision. The Hearing Panel shall not disturb the Director’s decision by substituting its own judgment for the judgment of the Director unless the Hearing Panel determines that the dismissal was clearly in error. If the Hearing Panel determines that the dismissal was clearly erroneous, the Formal Complaint will be reinstated and resolved according to these procedures without further appeal of the decision to reinstate. If the Hearing Panel determines that the dismissal was not clearly erroneous, it will affirm the dismissal, which action is final and not subject to further review.

20 HEARINGS

20.1 Overview of Hearing Process

Findings of responsibility and determinations regarding sanctions and remedies are made through a hearing process conducted by the five (5) member Hearing Panel and a non-voting Panel Chair. At least four members of a five-person Hearing Panel must sit for a given case, in addition to the nonvoting Panel Chair.
Chair, and at least three votes shall be required for any decision. The hearing is intended to provide the parties with a fair opportunity to present relevant information and to enable the Hearing Panel to make informed decisions regarding responsibility and sanctions/remedies.

A member of the Hearing Panel may be asked to withdraw from participation for good cause (including a valid conflict of interest), which shall be determined by the Panel Chair. Mere knowledge of the events at issue shall not disqualify a member. In the event that a member withdraws or is excused, an alternate member shall be randomly selected by the Panel Chair.

20.2 Presumption of Non-Responsibility and Standard of Proof

The Respondent is presumed “not responsible” unless and until a Hearing Panel finds the Respondent responsible for prohibited conduct under the Code by a majority vote using a preponderance of the evidence (i.e. more probable than not) standard of proof[A2].

If the Hearing Panel does not find the Respondent responsible for any prohibited conduct under the Code, it will dismiss the case. If the Hearing Panel finds that the Respondent is responsible under the Code, it will consider appropriate sanctions and remedies.

20.3 Responsibilities of the Panel Chair and Hearing Panel

The Panel Chair provides procedural oversight and guidance to the process and the Hearing Panel. However, the Hearing Panel makes all findings and issues any sanctions or remedies. The Panel Chair will draft the Hearing Panel’s decision, including findings of fact and rationales for their determinations regarding both responsibility and sanctions or remedies. The Panel Chair will obtain the Hearing Panel’s review and approval before issuing a written decision.

20.4 Notice of Hearing

Hearings are scheduled as timely as possible after completion of an investigation. A timely Notice of Hearing is sent to the parties which includes the charges at issue; a brief summary of the alleged prohibited conduct; the date, time, and place of the hearing; the name of the Panel Chair; and, if determined, the Hearing Panel members. If the notice does not include the name of the Hearing Panel members, the parties will be so notified, in writing, at a later time, prior to the hearing. All efforts will be made to provide the Notice of Hearing no later than ten (10) business days prior to the hearing.

20.5 Request to Reschedule Hearing

Either party may request that a hearing be rescheduled. Absent extenuating circumstances, requests to reschedule must be submitted at least three (3) business days prior to the hearing. A request to reschedule a hearing must be supported by a compelling reason for the delay. Given the number of individuals involved in a hearing, and the attendant difficulty of scheduling and rescheduling them in a timely manner, it may not be possible to accommodate all scheduling requests. The Panel Chair may also reschedule a hearing, without a request by the parties, when there is reasonable cause to do so.

20.6 Newly Discovered Evidence

If after the issuance of the final investigative record and investigative report and prior to the hearing, a party seeks to present a witness or introduce evidence not requested prior to the hearing and not disclosed... to the investigator, the Panel Chair may grant admission of a witness or evidence only upon a sufficient showing that the witness or evidence is highly relevant, material, and could not have been discovered during the investigation with reasonable due diligence.

Where a Panel Chair permits a party to introduce a newly discovered witness or evidence, to prevent surprise to the other party, the Panel Chair will reschedule or adjourn the hearing for the investigator to review the newly discovered witness or evidence. The Panel Chair may also re-open the pre-hearing submission process, as appropriate, so that the parties may respond to the new information.

20.7 Pre-Hearing Submissions by the Parties

Prior to a hearing, the parties will be asked in writing by the Director to make certain decisions and requests regarding the conduct of the hearing. This process is designed to ensure that the hearing is conducted in as equitable, respectful, and efficient a manner as possible.

There are two stages at which the parties will be asked to make Pre-Hearing Submissions.

- First, the parties will be asked to submit in writing an opening statement (describing their views on the allegations in the Complaint) and names of any requested witnesses.
- Second, once witnesses are approved and finalized, the parties will be asked to submit in writing any proposed questions or topics for individuals who might testify, including themselves, as explained below.

All Pre-Hearing Submissions are optional and are waived if not completed by the stated deadlines. Prior to the hearing, the Director will distribute each party’s Pre-Hearing Submissions to the other party for their review.

20.7.1 First Pre-Hearing Submission – Written Opening Statements and Witness Requests

Upon providing the parties with copies of the final investigative record and report to be transmitted to the Hearing Panel, the Director will instruct the parties, in writing, that they have the opportunity to submit a written opening statement (not to exceed 2500 words) and a written list of proposed witnesses. The parties may not add or address information in the opening statement not contained in the investigative record, as the Hearing Panel will not consider new information. The parties should include specific page citations to the final investigative record. All interview statements contained in the final investigative record become part of the hearing record and are before the Hearing Panel. If a party wants the Hearing Panel to hear directly from a witness, the party must submit a written witness request with their opening statement. Such a request should include:

1. The names of proposed witnesses, including the investigator, if the party requests that the investigator testify.
2. For each proposed witness an explanation of why the individual’s presence is relevant and helpful to the Hearing Panel in determining responsibility. For example, the party should explain why a witness’s interview statement contained in the final investigative report is not sufficient for the Hearing Panel to make its finding.
3. The parties are encouraged to include proposed questions for or general topics to be addressed by each witness. The parties will have an opportunity to supplement and revise their requests for questions and topics once they learn who will testify at the hearing. However, by indicating proposed questions and topics at this juncture, the parties will help the Panel Chair and Hearing Panel understand why the parties would like to hear from specific individuals. The parties may request only witnesses who were interviewed by the investigator during the investigative process.

The Panel Chair will establish a reasonable deadline for these submissions, typically no longer than five (5) business days. The Panel Chair, in consultation with the Hearing Panel, will review the parties' opening statements (for relevance and admissibility) and requests for witnesses, and the parties will be provided with those decisions in writing. This triggers the opportunity to file a second pre-hearing submission:

20.7.2 Second Pre-Hearing Submission – Questions and Topics

The second pre-hearing submission affords both parties the opportunity to submit a succinct proposal with:

1. Questions and topics for the witnesses.
2. Questions and topics for themselves and the other party. The parties are not required to commit to testifying at this juncture, but are encouraged to prepare for the eventuality that they and the other party would testify by submitting proposed questions and topics.

The Panel Chair will establish a reasonable deadline for these final submissions, typically no later than five (5) business days prior to the hearing. The Panel Chair, in consultation with the Hearing Panel, will review and rule on the parties requested questions and topics to be permitted at the hearing, approving those deemed relevant and that are not prohibited by these procedures or applicable laws, prejudicial, or duplicative of other evidence.

20.8 Hearing Process and Format

20.8.1 Overview of Hearing Process and Format

All hearings will be private. The only persons present will be the parties, their Counselor/advisor and support person, witnesses (when testifying), the Hearing Panel and Panel Chair, (and, at the Board’s discretion, its counsel), the investigator, and any staff necessary for the conduct of the hearing. Witnesses may be present only for their own testimony.

In cases of interpersonal misconduct such as assault, harassment or hazing, either party may request that the parties with their advisor(s) and support person, if applicable, will be in separate rooms. If separated, the parties will participate remotely via a secure audio-visual connection, with the exception that when a party testifies and gives their oral closing statement, generally, they should do so in the presence of the Hearing Panel and Panel Chair; they may be accompanied by their Counselor/advisor and support persons.

The Panel Chair, in consultation with the Hearing Panel, may establish reasonable time limits, rules, and format. The Panel Chair may adjourn the hearing, once commenced, and later reconvene the hearing in consideration of factors including, but not limited to, the unavailability of a witness, party, Panel Chair, Hearing Panel member, or needed personnel; inclement weather; late hour; or in order to make an evidentiary or procedural ruling.
Formal rules of evidence do not apply, the Panel Chair shall make all determinations regarding the admissibility, probative value, prejudicial effect, repetitiveness, redundancy, relevancy, etc., of evidence presented. Evidence that was excluded or redacted from the investigative record as impermissible will not be admissible at the hearing. Typically, the format of the hearing will be as follows:

- Introduction by the Panel Chair. The Panel Chair will explain the hearing process, address any necessary procedural issues, and answer questions.
- Testimony by the Complainant.
- Testimony by the Respondent.
- Testimony by any witnesses.
- Closing statements by the Complainant followed by the Complainant.

20.8.2 Testimony

Testimony is conducted through a question-and-answer format. Questioning will primarily be conducted by the Hearing Panel, but the Panel Chair may supplement the Hearing Panel’s questioning. The Panel Chair will ask persons being questioned to affirm that they will testify truthfully. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may testify or decline to testify and may make their election when their turn to testify arises. If a party testifies, they are expected to answer all questions asked. A party who testifies may propose supplemental questions that they wish to answer. Counselors/advisors participate in this process as set forth in Section 11 of these procedures.

The Panel Chair, in consultation with the Hearing Panel, may call a witness not on the witness list but previously interviewed by the investigator, and ask any question. In such cases, the parties will be given time to propose questions for the witness.

20.8.3 Closing Statements

The parties may provide both oral and written closing statements. This is the opportunity for the parties to marshal the evidence in the hearing record and suggest inferences and conclusions. The parties may not add or address information not contained in the hearing record, as the Hearing Panel will not consider new information. Nor may the parties address issues that pertain to sanctions and remedies. The Hearing Panel does not consider these issues when determining responsibility. The parties may appropriately raise such issues in their Impact/Mitigation Statements.

The Panel Chair will establish a time limit for brief oral closing statements, typically around five (5) minutes. The Panel Chair will also set the schedule for submission of written closing statements. The parties should assume that deliberations will commence immediately following the hearing, in which case the parties will be expected to submit written closing statements shortly after the oral closing statements. If there is an adjournment for deliberations, the Panel Chair may provide the parties with limited additional time to submit their statements.

Each party’s signed closing statement will be limited to 2000 words and to the evidence contained in the investigative record and hearing. The written statements will be distributed to the other party, Panel Chair, and Hearing Panel for their review.

20.8.4 Impact/Mitigation Statement

The parties are permitted, but not required, to prepare a written Impact/Mitigation Statement relevant to any sanctions. The parties may submit the statement up until the end of a hearing, but are advised to begin to compose such statements in advance. The statements are distributed to the Hearing Panel only upon a finding of responsibility and are included with the Hearing Panel’s written decision to the parties.

20.9 Deliberations on Findings of Responsibility

After closing arguments, the Hearing Panel may begin its deliberations. Deliberations will be completed as expeditiously as possible. Deliberations are conducted in private and they are not audio-recorded.

20.10 Sanctions and Remedies

A Hearing Panel that finds the Respondent responsible will continue its deliberations to consider sanctions and remedies. It will issue its findings on responsibility and sanctions/remedies simultaneously. Prior to deliberating on sanctions and remedies, the Panel Chair will distribute to the Hearing Panel any written or recorded Impact/Mitigation Statements previously submitted by the parties.

If the Respondent has a Cornell disciplinary record, a known disciplinary record from another institution, or a known criminal conviction, the Panel Chair may distribute to the Hearing Panel a copy of such disciplinary and/or criminal records prior to deliberating on sanctions and remedies. (Where an educational record, including a Cornell disciplinary record, is being considered solely for sanctions, it will not be shared with the Complainant.)

The Panel Chair may support the deliberations but may not express views on the merits and may not vote. The Hearing Panel will determine sanctions and remedies by a majority vote. In determining sanctions and remedies, the Hearing Panel will consider:

- the severity of the prohibited conduct;
- the circumstances of the prohibited conduct;
- the impact of the prohibited conduct and sanctions and remedies on the Complainant;
- the impact of the prohibited conduct and sanctions and remedies on the community;
- the impact of the prohibited conduct and sanctions and remedies on the Respondent;
- prior misconduct by the Respondent, including, the Respondent’s previous disciplinary record at Cornell University and if known, other disciplinary records or criminal convictions;
- the goals of the Code and these procedures; and
- any other mitigating, aggravating, or compelling factors.

The Hearing Panel may impose one or more of the following student sanctions and remedies:

- Measures similar in kind to the interim measures specified under these procedures.
- Appropriate educational steps (such as alcohol or drug education, reflection exercises, counseling, or directed study).
- Community work, which shall not be more than 80 hours per violation, and must be performed in a manner acceptable to the Director.
- Restitution to the Complainant.
- Fines of not less than $20 nor more than $500 payable to the University Treasurer.
- Restrictions or loss of specific or all privileges at the University for a specified period of time.
- Oral warnings.
- Written reprimands.
1049 · Disciplinary probation for a stated period.
1050 · Suspension from the University for a stated period not to exceed three (3) years.
1051 · Dismissal (i.e., expulsion) from the University.
1052
1053 The Hearing Panel may impose one or more of the following sanctions and remedies on University-1054 registered organizations:
1056 · Measures similar in kind to the interim measures specified under these procedures.
1057 · Appropriate educational steps for organization members (such as alcohol or drug 1058 education, reflection exercises, counseling, or directed study).
1059 · Community work performed by organization members, which shall not be more than 80
1060 hours per violation, and must be performed in a manner acceptable to the Director.
1061 · Restitution.
1062 · Fines of any reasonable and appropriate amount payable to the University Treasurer.
1063 · Restrictions or loss of specific or all privileges for the organization at the University for a 1064 specified period of time.
1065 · Written reprimands.
1066 · Dismissal, i.e., rescission of permission to operate on University property and/or 1067 termination of the organization’s agreement and relationship with the University.
1068
1069 Ordinarily, the penalties for subsequent or repeated violations, whenever such violation(s) occur, should 1070 be more severe than for a first violation. Further, certain types of violations are so fundamentally 1071 inconsistent with the University’s educational mission that, absent unusual mitigating factors, a sanction 1072 of substantial suspension or dismissal ordinarily will ordinarily be imposed. Such violations include acts 1073 of violence or other violations that substantially threaten the University’s educational mission or property, 1074 or the health or safety of University community members. The Hearing Panel may also recommend to the 1075 Director that the University take measures on campus to remedy the effect or prevent the reoccurrence of 1076 such prohibited conduct. Sanctions and remedies will be effective immediately unless otherwise specified 1077 by the Hearing Panel.

20.11 Decision of the Hearing Panel 1078 The Hearing Panel will issue a written decision as expeditiously as possible upon completion of 1079 deliberations. The Director will provide the written decision to the parties simultaneously and as soon as 1080 practicable. The decision will include:
1081
1082 · The specific prohibited conduct for which the Respondent was found responsible and not 1083 responsible; and 1084 · the findings of fact and the rationale for the Hearing Panel’s determinations regarding 1085 both responsibility and sanctions.
1088 The decision may incorporate and reference any portions of the proceedings, including the investigative 1089 record and report, as the Hearing Panel deems appropriate. The decision will include instructions and time 1090 limits for appeals. Both the Complainant and the Respondent will be informed simultaneously of the 1091 decision and any sanctions and remedies, the date by which the requirements must be satisfied (if 1092 applicable), and the consequences of failure to satisfy the requirements.

20.12 Hearing Record

Cornell University Student Assembly  □ www.CornellSA.com
The hearing record will include: the audio recording of the hearing, the Hearing Panel’s decision, the final investigative record and report, the parties’ pre-hearing submissions, the written witness lists, written opening and closing statements, written submissions permitted by these procedures made to the Panel Chair or during the hearing, and the parties’ Impact/Mitigation Statements (if considered by the Hearing Panel). The hearing record may also include a transcript of the hearing.

21 APPEAL OF A HEARING PANEL DECISION

Both the Complainant and the Respondent may appeal a decision of the Hearing Panel to a three (3) member Review Panel. The faculty member appointed to the Review Panel serves as its Chair. No person who served on the Hearing Panel will sit on the Review Panel in the same case. A member of the Review Panel may be asked to withdraw for good cause upon request of either party, which determination shall be made in the Review Panel Chair’s sole discretion. If the Review Panel Chair is reasonably challenged by a party, the Director shall appoint another member. In the event that a member withdraws or is excused, an alternate member shall be randomly selected by the Review Panel Chair.

Appeals will be based solely upon the hearing record except that when relevant to a stated ground for appeal, the Review Panel may supplement the record on appeal with evidentiary materials excluded or redacted from the investigative record or newly discovered evidence. If the Review Panel reverses a finding of not responsible, the record on appeal will be supplemented with the parties’ Impact/Mitigation Statements. Findings of fact will not be set aside unless clearly erroneous. Harmless error will be ignored.

Appeals may be brought only upon one or more of the following grounds:

1. A University official or officials, including the Hearing Panel, assigned responsibility for performing specific functions by these procedures, committed an error in interpreting or applying the Code of Conduct or these procedures, and such error had a prejudicial effect upon the outcome.
2. The Hearing Panel rendered a decision that is clearly erroneous.
3. New evidence was discovered after the decision that could not have reasonably been discovered before the decision and that would with high probability, have changed the outcome.
4. The sanctions or remedies are substantially disproportionate to the severity of the injury/violation or are otherwise manifestly unjust.

The appealing party commences an appeal by submitting a written statement to the Director within ten (10) business days of service of the Hearing Panel’s decision.

The appeal statement will be limited to 3500 words and must set forth:

- the determination(s) being appealed,
- the specific ground(s) for the appeal, and
- the facts supporting the grounds.

Failure to submit an appeal within the ten (10) business days or any approved extension constitutes waiver of the right to appeal. The Review Panel has discretion to grant any such request upon a finding of good cause for the delay.
A copy of the appeal statement will be provided to the other party, who, within ten (10) business days, may submit a written response to the Director. The response should address both the specific ground(s) for appeal set forth in the appealing party’s statement and the specific facts asserted by the appealing party. The response will be limited to 2500 words.

The Review Panel will issue a timely written decision, typically no later than thirty (30) business days after receipt of the non-appealing party’s submission or the time for submission has expired. The decision is final and binding on all parties. The decision must be by a majority vote of the Review Panel and will include the rationale for the Review Panel’s decision and any dissenting opinion.

The Review Panel may affirm the decision of the Hearing Panel or sustain any of the above-specified grounds for appeal, in which case the Review Panel may:

- reverse a finding;
- change a sanction or remedy;
- remand a case to the original Hearing Panel for clarification or reconsideration consistent with the Review Panel’s decision, if doing so would assist with a timely, practicable, and efficient resolution of the case;
- remand a case for a new hearing to either the original Hearing Panel or a newly composed Hearing Panel; or
- remand a case for a new or additional investigation, followed by an adjudication consistent with these procedures, to either the original investigator or to a new investigator.

REQUEST FOR A STAY PENDING APPEAL

The Review Panel has discretion to stay (i.e. postpone implementation of) any sanctions pending a final decision on the appeal. It may, but is not required to, stay a sanction where the appealing party demonstrates the need for a stay by a clear showing. An application for a stay must be submitted to the Director. The Director will provide a copy of the stay application to the Review Panel and the other party, who is entitled to respond to the stay application by submitting to the Director a written response. The Review Panel will set a reasonable timeline for handling the stay application, including a deadline for the other party to respond to the stay application. The Review Panel has discretion to reconsider its decision on a stay at any time during the appeal. The stay expires at the conclusion of the appeal.

CONSISTENCY OF INTERPRETATION

Because the student conduct system utilizes the decision of the University Hearing and Review Panels to define or interpret violations, summaries of all decisions of those boards shall be kept on file in the Director, including a brief description of the nature of the case and its disposition, but with names of individuals and other identifying information redacted.

[1] Complaints against a student organization are addressed so long as the organization remains registered with the University or is deemed to be operating even without approval or recognition.
Throughout these procedures, various University officials, such as the Director, are assigned responsibility for performing specific functions. Named officials are authorized to delegate responsibility to other appropriate University officials and non-University consultants except where such delegation contravenes University policy. Additionally, named officials and their designees may always consult with appropriate University administrators, the Office of University Counsel, and subject-matter experts.

For example, the Vice President for Student and Campus Life, or the Dean of Students.
