

Charter

Cornell University Employee Assembly

As amended on April 5, 2017

1 PREAMBLE

2 In response to a vote of the Cornell community and to effect direct and continued involvement of staff in 3 the governance of non-academic affairs and in the life of the university, the President, pursuant to the 4 authority delegated by the Board of Trustees, hereby establishes the Employee Assembly to be peopled by 5 employees and to be concerned with those matters directly affecting the staff community of Cornell
6 University.

7 ARTICLE I: NAME

8 A. The name of this organization shall be the Employee Assembly of Cornell University (herein after 9 referred to as the Assembly).

10 ARTICLE II: OBJECT

- 11 A. The object of this Assembly shall be to ensure a direct focus for the continued involvement of 12 exempt and non-exempt staff members in the governance of non-academic affairs and in the life of 13 the University.
- 14 B. The Assembly will bring about a higher visibility for employees as community members, more 15 equal participation with faculty and students in the policy-making process, and an increased sense
16 of community among all constituencies through shared responsibilities. This is accomplished by 17 charging the Assembly with the authority and the responsibility to examine any matters which 18 involve the interests or concern the welfare of the non-academic employee community and to make 19 proposals concerning those issues to the appropriate officers or decision-making bodies of the 20 University.
- 21 C. The Assembly will actively seek to involve all segments of Cornell's diverse employee population in 22 the Assembly's decision-making activities.

23 ARTICLE III: ESTABLISHMENT

24 Section 1: Employee Defined

- 25 A. For the purposes of this Charter, employees are any regular full-time and part-time staff members in 26 non-exempt, exempt, or academic non-professorial staff categories who are employed at the Ithaca
27 or Geneva campuses of the university.

28 Section 2: Session Defined

- 29 A. A session of the Assembly shall be from June 1 until May 31 of the following calendar year.

30 ARTICLE IV: AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

31 Section 1: Legislative Authority Over Policies

- 32 A. Subject to approval by the President, the Assembly shall have legislative authority to recommend 33 changes to university policies that affect the staff community, including Human Resources and 34 Personnel policies.
35 B. The Assembly will have authority and control over its own policies, operations, and maintenance, 36 including bylaws, procedures, and amendments.

37 Section 2: Information Exchange

- 38 A. The Assembly facilitates communication between employees and the President of the University;
39 B. This Assembly interacts with and discusses issues of mutual interest with the Student Assembly, the 40 Graduate and Professional Student Assembly, the University Assembly and the Faculty Senate.

41 Section 3: Requests for Information

- 42 A. The Assembly shall by majority vote have the authority to request information directly from a 43 department, or a specific individual within that department, concerning the budget, policies, or 44 actions of said department. The request for this information shall be made at a regular meeting of 45 the Assembly.
46 B. Should a request be refused, the Assembly by simple majority vote may request the information be 47 given to the Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer who shall forward it to the 48 Assembly.

49 Section 4: Reporting on the Actions of the Assembly

- 50 A. Reporting to the President – Via the Actions listserve, managed by the Office of the Assemblies, all
51 legislative actions of the Assembly will be reported by the Chair of the Assembly to the University 52 President. The Assembly will respond to any requests for information from the President on its 53 actions. The President may also request reconsideration of legislation proposed by the Assembly.
54 Such a request must be filed within thirty days of notification of the legislation. The Assembly will 55 take action on such a request, and, if the legislation is upheld, the Assembly will inform the 56 President.
- 57 B. Reporting to Other Bodies – Via the same transmittal through the Actions listserve, the Assembly
58 will report its actions to the GPSA, SA, UA, and the Faculty Senate.
- 59 C. Annual Report - The Chair of the Assembly will present an annual report at the last regular meeting 60 prior to the Elections deadline of May 1 of each Assembly session. This report will be sent to the 61 President of the University and made available to the staff community.
- 62 1. The report will include a summary of the Assembly's work during the preceding year and, in 63 addition, describe any unresolved issues that are expected to arise in the future. All members 64 of the Cornell community will have access to this report.
 - 65 2. The report must be shared with the Assembly prior to being presented to the University
66 President.

67 Section 5: Objection to Actions

- 68 A. Objection of Assembly Actions by Another Assembly – Should another assembly object to an action 69 of the Assembly, such an objection may be communicated to the Chair via the Actions listserve. At 70 its next business meeting, the Assembly shall review the objection and either modify the original 71 position to account for the objections of the other constituencies or reaffirm the original action.
- 72 B. Objection by the Assembly to Other Assemblies' Actions – The Assembly may determine by a two-73 thirds vote of seated members that it objects to the action of another constituent assembly, and 74 communicate such an objection via the Actions listserve. In such an event, reasonable procedures for 75 the reconciliation of differences shall be pursued.

76 Section 6: Representation Exclusions

- 77 A. The Assembly may not represent any interested party, including either the University or its 78 employees, in matters concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of 79 employment, or terms and conditions of employment, and may not investigate the merits of 80 individual grievances.

81 Section 7: Public Hearings, Forums, and Referenda

- 82 A. The Assembly will have the authority and responsibility to conduct public hearings, forums, and 83 referenda concerning topics of current employee interest, and to determine other appropriate ways
84 to best represent the needs and opinions of the staff community.

85 ARTICLE V: MEMBERSHIP

86 Section 1: Eligibility

- 87 A. Changes of status within the university do not alter the eligibility of a member to serve as long as 88 that member remains an employee of the University.
89 B. A voting member of the assembly may not serve concurrently as a trustee of the University.

90 Section 2: Seat allocation

- 91 A. The Assembly consists of 28 voting members elected by and from the eligible employee population 92 at Cornell University.
- 93 1. Nine voting members shall be elected to represent the following academic colleges and 94 schools with one representative each: College of Agriculture & Life Sciences; College of 95 Architecture, Art, & Planning; College of Arts & Sciences; College of Engineering / Computer
96 & Information Science; The Graduate School / Law School / Johnson Graduate School of 97 Management; School of Hotel Administration; College of Human Ecology; School of 98 Industrial and Labor Relations; College of Veterinary Medicine.
 - 99 2. Ten voting members shall be elected to represent the following administrative units with one 100 representative each: Alumni Affairs & Development; Financial Affairs, Budget & Planning,
101 Audit & Investment; Geneva Campus; Health & Safety; Human Resources; Infrastructure,
102 Properties & Planning; Library, Museum & Continuing Education; Research, Tech Transfer 103 & Information Technology; Student & Campus Life; University Relations.
 - 104 3. Nine voting members shall be elected to represent the following affinity groups with one 105 representative each: Disability; Exempt; International; Less Than Five Years of Service;
106 LGBTQ; Non-Exempt; Retirees; Veterans; Women.

107 Section 3: Ex-officio Members

- 108 A. All members of the Cornell staff community are considered non-voting members of the Assembly, 109 and are encouraged to attend and participate in meetings.

Cornell University Employee Assembly

110 B. In addition, the following serve as members of the Assembly ex-officio without vote:

- 111 1. the Employee Elected Trustee,
- 112 2. the Editor of PawPrint, and
- 113 3. the Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer or a designee.

114 Section 4: Vacancies

115 A. Vacancy defined:

- 116 1. A regular vacancy occurs when the term of a member expires, and may be filled by election.
- 117 2. An incidental vacancy occurs when:
 - 118 a. a seat remains vacant after a regular election;
 - 119 b. a member resigns or is removed from membership; or,
 - 120 c. a member ceases to be eligible for membership.

121 B. Filling regular vacancies by election:

- 122 1. The assembly reviews and approves election rules, procedures, and a publicity plan for
- 123 elections within the first three meetings of the semester in which the elections will be held.
- 124 2. Candidates will be recused from any voting, discussion or disputes arising during the
- 125 election in which they are a candidate, unless specifically requested to respond by the chair
- 126 of the Elections Committee or Chair of the Assembly.
- 127 3. Elections must be completed and results tabulated no later than May 1st of each Assembly
- 128 session.

129 C. Filling incidental vacancies:

- 130 1. In the event a seat remains open because an eligible staff candidate did not run for election,
- 131 that seat is first filled from any eligible candidates not seated from other elections. If there are
- 132 no eligible candidates, that seat remains open and quorum for that session will be based on
- 133 the filled seats. If a candidate later emerges for that seat, the Assembly may vote by a simple
- 134 majority of seated members to appoint that candidate to fill the remainder of the open seat's
- 135 term.
- 136 2. Should an incidental vacancy occur for any seat, the Assembly seats the highest-ranked,
- 137 unseated candidate from the most recent election for the seat.
- 138 3. Should an incidental vacancy occur and no eligible candidates remain to be seated from the
- 139 most recent election for that seat, the Assembly may seat a member to fill the vacancy by the
- 140 following process:
 - 141 a. The Assembly solicits interest from the employee community within two weeks of
 - 142 the vacancy's occurrence. The solicitation proceeds for no less than two weeks, and
 - 143 continues until it is closed by the Assembly.

Cornell University Employee Assembly

- 144 b. At the next meeting after solicitation has been closed, a slate of eligible candidates 145 must be presented to the Assembly.
- 146 c. To conduct the election, the chair of the meeting:
- 147 i. Allows each candidate to make an opening statement;
- 148 ii. Allows all members present to ask questions of the candidates, including the 149 candidates for the office;
- 150 iii. Closes question and answer period;
- 151 iv. Moves to a vote by secret ballot; and,
- 152 v. Repeats voting as needed until one candidate receives a majority of votes cast, 153 eliminating the candidate receiving the fewest votes in each round of voting.
- 154 d. Members who fill incidental vacancies shall serve the full remainder of the 155 term.

156 Section 5: Authority to Appoint Delegates, Committee Members and Liaisons

- 157 A. The Assembly has staffing authority to appoint constituent representatives to assemblies and other 158 committees.
- 159 B. Regarding the University Assembly, the Assembly has staffing authority to appoint representatives 160 as follows:
- 161 1. Five employees, of whom at least two are also members of the Assembly.
- 162 2. These appointments shall be made before May 1 of each year.
- 163 3. Members of the Assembly appointed to the University Assembly (UA) and/or any of its 164 standing committees, may serve only as long as they remain a member of the Employee
165 Assembly.
- 166 a. If at any time during the course of an Assembly session, a UA member appointed 167 directly by or from the Assembly should vacate their seat, the seat shall be reassigned
168 by a caucus of seated members of the Assembly, and appointed by the Executive 169 Committee.
- 170 b. If at any time during the course of an Assembly session, a staff member appointed to 171 the UA or one of its committees ceases to be eligible for their seat on the Assembly, 172 the seat shall be reassigned by a caucus of the seated members of the Assembly, and 173 appointment by the Executive Committee.
- 174 C. The Assembly will have the authority to appoint eligible employees to serve as non-voting liaisons 175 to department, unit, administrative of university committees, councils, working groups, etc., as such 176 need is conveyed.

177 Section 6: Term

Cornell University
Employee Assembly

- 178 A. The term of membership is two consecutive sessions of the Assembly. Terms are staggered such that 179 only half of the members' terms expire each year.

180 Section 7: Removal

- 181 A. Any member of the Assembly may motion to remove another member for conduct that is unethical, 182 illegal, disruptive, or otherwise in conflict with the Charter and Bylaws of the Assembly or the 183 University.
184 B. The Assembly must allow the member to attend any discussion, deliberation, or vote related to the 185 removal and must inform all members at least one week in advance of any meeting where it will 186 consider such a motion.
187 C. The Assembly may remove the member by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the seated 188 membership.

189 ARTICLE VI: AMENDMENT

- 190 A. The Assembly may amend this Charter by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the seated members.
191 The Assembly may not approve proposed amendments on the same date that they are proposed or 192 modified.
193 B. Amendments are subject to approval by the President of the University.
