EA R8: Updates to The George Peter Award for Dedicated Service

Abstract: The George Peter Award for Dedicated Service is the longest running and most prestigious university-wide peer-nominated award for staff. Since its inception in 1980, the award has been conferred to over 190 Cornell employees. The Employee Assembly would like to continue this long-standing tradition with refined terms, eligibility and criteria.

Addendum 1: George Peter Award for Dedicated Service Overview

George Peter Award for Dedicated Service
George Peter revolutionized the status of Cornell employees and served as a tireless ambassador for the university. Throughout his 40-year career, Peter was an active member of the campus community. He led the effort to broaden Cornell employees' participation in shared governance, advocating for staff representation in university decision-making and creating opportunities for official recognition of employee achievements.

Overview
The George Peter Award for Dedicated Service is given annually by the Employee Assembly to staff who consistently demonstrate excellence in the performance of their duties, and who prove their willingness to extend themselves to help others and go above and beyond the normal expectations of their job responsibilities. The recipient(s) are announced at a celebration event hosted by the recipient’s department or unit. Since its inception in 1980, the award has been bestowed on over 190 Cornell employees.

Eligibility
All full-time Cornell staff members with five or more years of service are eligible for consideration for this award.

Selection Criteria
Nominees must demonstrate:
- Excellence in the performance of their assigned duties.
- Dedication to their job and work group that goes above and beyond expectations.
- Respect for the contributions of staff at all levels.
- Commitment to lifelong learning.
- Having positive impact on the university.

Nominations
This is a peer-nominated award. Nominations may only be submitted by Cornell staff members. Any staff member wishing to nominate a colleague should have direct experience working with the nominee and must submit a completed nomination packet. The nomination packet is a single PDF document consisting of:
- Coversheet
- Nomination letter explaining why this person deserves the award, citing relevant examples wherever possible. This can be co-signed by multiple staff members.
- Letter of support from nominee’s direct supervisor.
- Up to three brief letters of support from other members of the Cornell community (staff, faculty, students, administrators, alumni)
