Current Status: New Business

Whereas, the Brooks School of Public Policy was established in 2021 to “bring together scholars across disciplines to tackle the biggest public policy challenges we face as a society,”¹

Whereas, the Employee Assembly has established a School of Public Policy Representative seat,

Whereas, Students of the Brooks School are not students of Human Ecology and deserve the same equal representation as all other undergraduate students,

Whereas, the Brooks School is seeking to follow the “Dyson model” and establish itself as a separate body from the College of Human Ecology,

Be it therefore resolved, the Student Assembly will adopt the following amendment to lines 184-190 of the Student Assembly Charter:

A. General Composition – The SA will consist of 31 voting members who are registered undergraduate students at Cornell University. Up to two additional votes shall be allocated to the entire community of undergraduates as a whole present at a Student Assembly meeting on motions that express the opinion of the assembly. Such community votes shall be allowed only as provided by the Assembly in its bylaws. Thirteen voting members of the SA will be elected by and from the student populations of the colleges and schools, one from each: the Dyson School of Business, the College of Architecture, Art and Planning; the School of Hotel Administration; the College of Human Ecology; the Brooks School of Public Policy; and the School of Industrial and Labor Relations.
