1 S.A. Resolution #32
2 Accommodating Muslim Religious Holidays
3
4 ABSTRACT: This resolution urges the University to allow for academic exemptions and
5 accommodations for Muslim students celebrating religious holidays.
6
7 Sponsored by: Omar Din'19
8
9 WHEREAS, Cornell University is an institution founded on the principle: “any person...any 10 study.”;
11
12 WHEREAS, Article II of the Student Assembly Charter states the Student Assembly has “the 13 authority and the responsibility to examine any matters which involve the interests or concern the 14 welfare of the student community”;
15
16 WHEREAS, the diverse Cornell University student body includes individuals from many faiths and 17 background;
18
19 WHEREAS, there have been numerous studies showing the link between faith and overall
20 wellbeing and improved mental health;
21
22 WHEREAS, most academic calendars, including Cornell’s, have been built to accommodate
23 Christian holidays (ex. Christmas during winter break, Easter during spring break);
24
25 WHEREAS, Section 3 of New York State Education Law states:
26
27 “3. It shall be the responsibility of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each
28 institution of higher education to make available to each student who is absent from school,
29 because of his or her religious beliefs, an equivalent opportunity to . . . make up any 30 examination, study or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such 31 absence on any particular day or days”
32
33 WHEREAS, Muslim religious holidays such as Eid-al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha often conflict with 34 course schedules, forcing students to choose between their education and their religious observance;
35
36 WHEREAS, Ramadan is a required month-long religious holiday, during which Muslims can
37 neither eat nor drink anything from sunrise to sunset, occurring in 2018 from May 16th to June 14th;
38
39 WHEREAS, Final examinations for the spring 2018 semester are slated from May 14th to May
40 22nd, thus overlapping with Ramadan;
41

42 WHEREAS, students observing these holidays are often fatigued and drained physically, leading to 43 difficulty retaining information and reduced attention span, which negatively impacts exam
44 performance;

45
46 WHEREAS, the University recommends for instructors to allow students to move scheduled finals
47 or take make up examinations if there are more than two examinations in a 24 hour period;

48
49 BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, the Student Assembly affirms students should never be
50 required to choose between their faith and education;

51
52 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Student Assembly requests the Faculty Senate Educational
53 Policy Committee review procedures and policies regarding religious holiday accommodations;

54
55 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Student Assembly requests that, where practical and 56 appropriate, instructors should outline policies regarding said religious holiday accommodation, for 57 any religion, on distributed syllabi;

58
59 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that for final examinations that conflict with students fasting
60 for Ramadan, students are given the option to either take the finals before Ramadan begins or to 61 take them in the evening after they have broken their fast;

62
63 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that takeout or to-go boxes are made available on North, West,
64 and Central Campus dining halls to students upon request, where they are not otherwise provided,
65 so that students may still utilize their meal plan and save the food for when they are able to eat;;

66
67 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that such opportunities for religious exemptions are made
68 aware to the student body as a whole through a campus wide email sent out by the Vice President
69 for Student and Campus life in the weeks leading up to Ramadan (among other religious holidays);

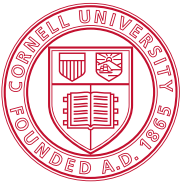

70
71 BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be conveyed to the Vice President
72 for Student and Campus Life, the Provost, the Dean of Faculty, the Cornell Dining Director, the 73 Deans of each college, and the Chairs of each academic department.

74
75 Respectfully Submitted,
