

Resolution 47: Creating an Ad Hoc Committee to Bolster Community Engagement

Abstract: This resolution establishes an ad hoc committee to reinstate the Home Plate initiative at Cornell University.

Sponsored by: J.P. Swenson '25, Patrick Kuehl '24

Reviewed by: Executive Cabinet, 01/25/2024, 9-0-0

Type of Action: Internal Policy

Originally Presented: 01/25/2024

Current Status: Adopted by the Student Assembly, 02/01/2024, Unanimous

Whereas, The Charter of the Student Assembly grants the Assembly the “authority and the responsibility to examine any matters which involve the interests or concern the welfare of the student community;

Whereas, The Student Assembly and Cornell has a deep interest in engaging with the local communities surrounding Cornell and it is important for students to “walk down the hill”

Whereas, Cornell University and the Einhorn Center have strategic partnerships with local organizations that desire our volunteerism and student support

Whereas, Student Assembly members should be encouraged to engage in community service

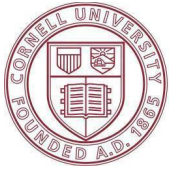

Be it therefore resolved, That there be established an ad hoc committee known as the “Committee on Community Engagement”, which shall be charged with collaborating with the Einhorn Center for Community Engagement.

Resolved, The ad-hoc Committee on the Home Plate Initiative shall be made up of at least six members;

Resolved, That the President of the Assembly shall appoint a chair and members of the committee;

Resolved, That the Committee will take feedback from all members and relay key information during Thursday meetings.

Respectfully Submitted,

Cornell University
Student Assembly

- 29 J.P. Swenson '25
- 30 Student-Elected Trustee, Cornell University
- 31
- 32 Patrick Kuehl '24
- 33 President, Student Assembly