Whereas, Cornell University is a community rooted in the core value of belonging, and was founded under the principle value of being an institution for not just any study, but for equality and belonging for any person;

Whereas, Generations of Cornell students have lived and learned under our university motto and have so proudly continued supporting these values, even in the face of generational challenges;

Whereas, Hatred, no matter the time or space, will always be against our university's values, and must always be acknowledged and condemned accordingly;

Whereas, Antisemitism has no place on campus and goes against Cornell University's core values of respect and belonging;

Whereas, Academic institutions have always served as storied grounds of learning and living through challenges, and have shown the need for respecting each other's differences and celebrating them as a community;

Be it therefore resolved, the Student Assembly completely and unequivocally condemns antisemitism in all its forms;

Be it further resolved, the Student Assembly will continue to work with Cornell administration to combat antisemitism on campus, and reaffirm that every student has the right to feel physically safe and welcome among the Cornell community.
