S.A. Resolution #20

On the Proposed Changes to the Student Code of Conduct

ABSTRACT: The Student Assembly expresses its dissatisfaction with the procedures in changing the Code of Conduct. The SA makes demands of the university to share information and delay a Board of Trustees vote.

Sponsored by: Logan Kenney, UA, Evan Moy '21, Morgan Baker '23, Kayla Butler '24, Claire Tempelman '24, Andrea Miramontes Serrano '24, Amari Lampert '24, Uchenna Chukwukere '21, Valentina Xu '22, Lucas Smith '22, Dillon Andakat '21, Raquel Zohar '23, Kate Santacruz '22, Lucy Contreras '21, Tomás Reuning '21, Valeria Valencia '23, Lucas Zumpano '21, Sonu Kapoor '21, Samuel Zverev '21, Jenniviv Bansah '22, Mardiya Shardow '23, Anuli Ononye '22, Bennett Sherr '21, Moriah Adeghe '21, Noah Watson '23

Whereas, the proposed changes to the Student Code of Conduct will impact undergraduate students;

Whereas, the process by which these changes were proposed was an affront to the Cornellian ideals of shared governance;

Whereas, information on such an important issue has been withheld from the public with no meaningful or redeeming purpose;

Whereas, there has not been ample time to discuss and comment on the final version of the Code of Conduct since its recent proposal at the Board of Trustees;

Be it therefore resolved, the Student Assembly formally requests the final version of the Student Code of Conduct that the Cornell Board of Trustees will vote on;

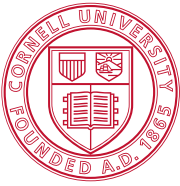

Be it further resolved, the Student Assembly requests Cornell administration define explicitly how they intend the Vice President of Student and Campus Life would 'consult' with the Student Assembly and Graduate and Professional Student Assembly, should the Board of Trustees make such a determination;

Be it finally resolved, the Board of Trustees vote will be delayed until the first Board of Trustees meeting of the spring semester, when the relevant constituencies, organizations, and bodies impacted have been able to process, comment, and express concerns over the document;

Respectfully Submitted,

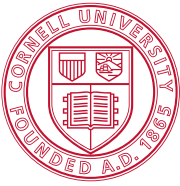

Evan Moy '21
