

1 Standing Rules
2 Cornell University Student Assembly
3 As Amended on January 26, 2017

4 Section 1: Preamble

- 5 A. The Student Assembly's foremost interest in 2017 shall be the undergraduate students of Cornell University.
6 These Standing Rules shall serve as guidelines for specific rules and effective leadership from the Student
7 Assembly that may not specifically be covered in the charter or bylaws, but will aide in the efficiency of a
8 successful Assembly. These Standing Rules shall be adhered to by all Student Assembly members (elected and 9 ex-officio), committee members, community members, and staff.
- 10 B. These Standing Rules shall be utilized with the following prefaces:
- 11 i. Rule 1: In the event of a conflict, the Charter, Bylaws, and Special Rules of Order shall supersede the 12 Standing Rules.
- 13 ii. Rule 2: The Standing Rules shall be revised at the beginning of each semester by the President, the 14 Executive Vice-President, and the Parliamentarian and submitted by the Executive Vice President
15 and Parliamentarian to the Student Assembly for approval of the Student Assembly by the Executive 16 Vice President and Parliamentarian. The Standing Rules shall take effect upon a majority vote of 17 approval by the voting membership of the Student Assembly. The Standing Rules can also be edited 18 at any time by a majority vote of the membership of the SA.
- 19 iii. Rule 3: A motion to suspend the Standing Rules must be recognized by the Chair and approved by a 20 two-thirds vote of Student Assembly members present.

21 Section 2: Ethical Standards and Attendance Policy

- 22 A. Ethical Conduct is expected of all members at all times, as members are representative of their constituencies.
23 Any member found to be using the name of the SA outside of the bounds of the individual's described role
24 on the SA, abusing the SA brand to acquire additional benefits or privileges, or any such similar matter shall 25 be in violation of this ethics clause. The appropriate disciplinary action shall be determined by the Executive 26 Board, the Dean of Students, and the Office of Assemblies.
- 27 B. The Student Assembly is charged to "seek out and voice effectively the interests and concerns of the student 28 body." To do this, attendance and participation, as outlined below is imperative for efficiency within the 29 Assembly:
- 30 i. Rule 1: Attendance is required at all regularly scheduled meetings for all voting and ex-officio members
31 who serve in a liaison capacity. Absences will not be recorded for ex-officio organizational liaison
32 members, i.e. Tri-Council and Residential Student Congress, if the absence is a result of a conflicting
33 obligation related to their respective organization. Attendance requirements for all operational ex-officio
34 members shall be at the discretion of the executive committee. Absences for shared government liaisons
35 will not be under the discretion of the executive committee. Regularly scheduled meetings are held 36 Thursdays, from 4:45 until 6:30 p.m., while undergraduate colleges are in session. Informal meetings are 37 considered official meetings when held in lieu of regular Thursday meetings or when deemed official by a 38 unanimous vote of the executive committee.
- 39 ii. Rule 2: Attendance at all organizational and specially-scheduled meetings is required, when the Executive 40 Committee provides SA members at least 72 hours' prior notice of the meeting. Such meetings shall be

Cornell University Student Assembly

- 41 considered “regularly scheduled meetings,” for the purpose of accruing absences. Ex-officio members 42 will be excused from these meetings unless notified otherwise by the Executive Committee.
- 43 iii. Rule 3: All voting members must remain an active member of at least one committee as per the standards 44 established by the chair of their respective committee. Failure to remain an active member of at least one 45 committee can result in vacancy of a seat at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
- 46 iv. Rule 4: Any member who fails to attend a required meeting or event shall be considered absent. Any late 47 arrival beyond the first 15 minutes of the meeting will result in a half-absence. Any early departure will 48 result in a half-absence. The Executive Committee reserves the right to decide what constitutes an early 49 departure.
- 50 v. Rule 5: Any member who arrives late to a required meeting or event but within the first 15 minutes after 51 Roll-Call will receive a quarter-absence.
- 52 vi. Rule 6: At the discretion of the Vice President of Internal Operations, unavoidable academic conflicts 53 including prelims, final presentations, and field trips but not including office hours, review sessions or 54 professor visits that are in direct conflict with a required Student Assembly meeting will not be counted 55 towards the three cumulative regularly scheduled meetings if they are reported 2 weeks before the 56 meeting conflict. Academic conflicts that cannot be reasonably predicted 2 weeks before the meeting 57 conflict can be excused by a majority vote of the executive committee.
- 58 vii. Rule 7: At the discretion of the Vice President of Internal Operations, unavoidable conflicts as a result of 59 job interviews and scholarship interviews that are in direct conflict with a required Student Assembly 60 meeting will not be counted towards the three cumulative regularly scheduled meetings if they are 61 reported as soon as the conflict arises.
- 62 viii. Rule 8: At the discretion of the Vice President of Internal Operations, unavoidable conflicts as a result of 63 religious obligations that are in direct conflict with a required Student Assembly meeting will not be 64 counted towards the three cumulative regularly scheduled meetings if they are reported 3 weeks before 65 the meeting conflict.
- 66 ix. Rule 9: The Vice President of Internal Operations can request documentation for proof of absence.
- 67 x. Rule 10: Any college or constituency who lacks representation as a result of a seat being vacated or 68 unclaimed shall be filled by the runner-up in the most recent election for that seat. If the seat remains
69 vacant, an interim representative shall be appointed by the President, and confirmed by a majority of SA
70 Members. The interim representative shall have full voting privileges associated with membership on the 71 SA. The interim representative post shall be terminated immediately upon the declaration of a permanent 72 replacement via an election. The interim position will remain in effect for the remainder of semester if 73 the position becomes vacant following the first 3 weeks of the semester.
- 74 xi. Rule 12: All candidates who are elected to the Student Assembly during Spring Elections are required to 75 attend all Organizational Meetings and the last two SA meetings during the Spring Semester. Absences at 76 these meetings will count toward the member’s term total.
- 77 xii. Rule 13: All elected members of the Student Assembly will adhere to the Cornell University Student 78 Assembly Oath of Office, which states:
79 *In the view of the trust the Cornell Community has vested in me, as well as my personal sense of honor, I _____,
80 do solemnly affirm to fulfill my responsibilities as a student-elected representative. I will engage in open and honest debate in 81 a process where I am guided by truth and fairness. I will never purposely misrepresent facts in an effort to achieve my goals. If 82 a conflict of interest arises, I will relinquish my right to participate in the decision making process. I will seek out and voice 83 effectively the interests and concerns of the student body, address the issues of my fellow students, and strive to improve the 84 quality of life at Cornell for all students.*

85 Section 3: Agenda-Setting Policies and Procedures

Cornell University Student Assembly

- 86 A. Rule 1: The agenda for any informal meetings shall not contain voting on legislation unless these meetings are 87 held in lieu of regular Thursday meetings or to meet a deadline.
- 88 B. Rule 2: The Executive Vice President will place under Business of the Day any item that has been previously 89 discussed. Additionally, appropriation requests and committee assignments are to appear under Business of 90 the Day. All other items shall be introduced as New Business, unless otherwise authorized by a majority vote 91 of the Executive Board or a majority vote of the Student Assembly.
- 92 C. Rule 3: New Business shall be an opportunity for SA and community members to ask questions of and make 93 suggestions to the author of a piece of legislation. Comments may not be argumentative in nature and 94 questions must seek factual answers.
- 95 D. Rule 4 Business of the Day shall be an opportunity for discussion and debate on the legislation.
- 96 E. Rule 5: Prior to introduction as New Business, all resolutions shall be reviewed and approved by an 97 appropriate SA committee no more than 30 days before the EVP sends the agenda to the general public. The 98 Executive Vice President or the Vice President of Internal Operations will determine which committee will 99 review a resolution. A resolution cannot be introduced to the SA without approval by an appropriate SA
100 committee except under extenuating circumstances in which the Executive Board determines that a
101 resolution should be brought to the floor without a committee review. Approval by a committee requires a 102 majority vote of the committee members present at the committee meeting. A representative of the 103 committee that reviewed the resolution is permitted to give a brief summary of the committee's thoughts or 104 concerns on the resolution when it is presented a regularly scheduled Student Assembly meeting.
- 105 F. Rule 6: If the Residential Student Congress needs to pass a formal legislative resolution concerning residential 106 life at Cornell, the Residential Student Congress has the authority to pass resolutions that will be introduced 107 as New Business on the Student Assembly agenda. These resolutions must explicitly pertain to residential life.
108 Any resolutions presented by the Residential Student Congress must have been voted on and approved by a
109 majority vote of the general body members of the Residential Student Congress and the Residential Student 110 Congress liaison to the Student Assembly, who must be the sponsor of the resolution. The resolution must 111 be sent to the Student Assembly EVP at least one week before the Student Assembly meeting where the 112 resolution will appear on the agenda. All resolutions appearing on the SA agenda through this method, 113 without having been passed by an SA committee, will require a vote of two-thirds of SA members present to 114 be passed.
- 115 G. Rule 7: At its weekly meeting, the Executive Committee will discuss the agenda for Student Assembly
116 meetings. Items for the agenda must be submitted to the Executive Vice President of the Student Assembly
117 in the proper format, as designated by the Executive Vice President.
- 118 H. Rule 8: The Office of the Assemblies must post the agenda to the Student Assembly website no later than 119 noon on the day of the meeting.
- 120 I. Rule 9: The Vice President of Outreach and the sponsors of the resolution must ensure that all parties, 121 including but not limited to any specific Cornell student, administrator, faculty member, or staff member,
122 involved or impacted by particular legislative actions are notified and invited to attend the meeting at which 123 the action shall be heard. Additionally, any registered student organization must be notified if the proposed 124 legislation affects their funding or guidelines. The aforementioned need not consent to the legislation, but it
125 is highly encouraged that the aforementioned attend the meeting. In the event that the author of said
126 legislation is uncomfortable contacting all interested parties, they may request that the Vice President of 127 Outreach does so on their behalf.
- 128 J. Rule 10: A short descriptive abstract of approximately 25 words will be submitted by sponsors of resolutions 129 before committee approval.
- 130 K. Rule 11: Student Assembly Initiatives should be presented as reports to the Student Assembly with an 131 opportunity for questions from Student Assembly Members and Community Members. A summary of 132 the initiative reports will be reported over the Actions Listserv bi-weekly. The following procedures will 133 be followed for initiative reports:

Cornell University

Student Assembly

- 134 i. The Chair announces the initiative and the sponsors have two minutes to present their initiative 135 ii. A moderated Q&A will follow the presentation, the questions can be argumentative in nature as 136 Student Assembly Representatives and community members shall be empowered to express their 137 approval or disapproval
138 iii. The Chair shall be empowered to determine to end the time when the allocated time has expired,
139 conversation has become redundant, or the speaker's list has been exhausted
140 iv. The Executive Vice President shall be empowered to make the determination as to what will be 141 presented as an initiative
142 L. Rule 12: Following the Referenda protocol in Article III §8 of the Student Assembly Charter, the Executive 143 Vice President will present an update on pro and con statements during the Promotional Period. The 144 Executive Vice President will give this presentation at the first regularly scheduled SA meeting after the 145 Office of the Assemblies posts the community statements anonymously to the Assemblies website.

146 Section 4: Abstentions and Proxy Voting

- 147 A. Rule 1: As per the Cornell University Student Assembly Oath of Office, a members shall abstain from voting 148 if a conflict of interest arises.
149 B. Rule 2: SA members may abstain from voting at regularly scheduled or special meetings of the Assembly.
150 However, if the total number of abstentions is greater than the total number of votes in favor of a resolution 151 or motion, the resolution or motion fails.
152 C. Rule 3: The tendering of proxy votes shall occur in accordance with the Special Rules or Order, but shall 153 require that an excused absence be noted by the Vice President of Internal Operations.
154 D. Rule 4: All members of the Appropriations Committee and the Student Assembly shall abstain from voting if 155 they have a conflict of interest. A member shall be deemed to have a conflict of interest if they hold an 156 executive board position in the organization. Additionally, a member shall be considered to have a conflict of 157 interest if they have requested funding or financial co-sponsorship from the organization in the previous 3
158 months or intend to request in the next 3 months.
159 E. Rule 5: The previous rule shall not apply to the Student Assembly's determination of the Student Assembly's
160 Byline Funding Allocation; however, all representatives shall hold the Student Assembly to the same or higher 161 standards as all other applicants.

162 Section 5: Committee Leadership and Oversight

- 163 A. The committees of the Student Assembly are essential to the functioning of the shared governance system.
164 Leaders of the Assembly committees are elected to effectively run the Assembly. As a result, members in 165 such a position are charged with these obligations and are required to adhere by as such:
166 i. Rule 1: In accordance with Rules 5–8 and Articles 3 and 7 of the Student Assembly Charter, the SA
167 Vice President of Internal Operations has the obligation to be in constant contact with the SA clerk, 168 all committee chairs, and all bodies in which the SA sends representation to keep an accurate log of 169 attendance. The SA Vice President of Internal Operations shall report any pressing matters regarding 170 attendance, such as members in jeopardy of exceeding the allowed number of absences, to the 171 Executive Committee at their weekly meeting.
172 ii. Rule 2: Each SA member must be a voting member of at least one SA committee, the University
173 Assembly, or a UA committee. The Chair of each committee shall inform the SA VP of Internal 174 Operations of any SA members who are in jeopardy of violating the committee's attendance policy.
175 Additionally, the committee chair shall inform the VP of Internal Operations if an SA member has 176 violated the committee's attendance policy and has been removed from the committee.

Student Assembly

- 177           iii.     Rule 3: The President, Executive Vice President, and Vice President of Internal Operations will be 178           ex-officio members of every committee, except the Elections Committee, and taskforce associated 179           with the Student Assembly and whose activities are delineated in the SA charter.
180           iv.     Rule 4: Committee chairs will report updates as necessary regarding upcoming committee meeting 181           dates and times at regularly scheduled meetings, as well as post committee agendas and minutes to 182           the SA website, as appropriate.
183           v.     Rule 5: All SA Committee members must be a member of their respective committee listservs.
184           Meeting dates, times, and agendas shall be sent to all committee members 24 hours prior to the 185           meeting via the appropriate committee listserv. By a two-thirds vote of committee members present, 186           the committee may amend their agenda.
187           vi.     Rule 6: Each committee chair is responsible for reaching out to relevant student organizations in 188           order to solicit feedback on ideas and collaborate with student groups on initiatives that the 189           committee is working on.

190    Section 6: General Meeting Procedures

- 191           A.    To “voice effectively” these interests which were mentioned above, strict rules must be adhered to when 192           conducting business as an assembly. These rules focus on the efficiency and organization of the tasks at hand:
193           i.     Rule 1: Speakers will be recognized at the discretion of the Chair and placed on a speaker’s list
194           maintained by the Chair. Each speaker shall have a maximum of two minutes to speak, with the 195           option to yield the balance of his, her, or their time to another single individual at the meeting, 196           including the Chair. It is at the Chair’s discretion to place additional limitations on speaking time.
197           ii.    Rule 2: All speakers shall address their remarks to the Chair.
198           iii.   Rule 3: The Chair shall keep time at any point when such is required.
199           iv.    Rule 4: Except for points of order, information, and questions of privilege, no person shall be 200           recognized by the Chair twice before all other members (voting, community, and ex-officio) have had 201           the opportunity to speak.
202           v.     Rule 5: The Chair will recognize the members of the community who wish to speak on the question.
203           The Chair will have discretion as to when community members are recognized. Each speaker will 204           limit his, her, or their comments to no more than two minutes, If multiple speakers wish to address
205           the Student Assembly, equal opportunity will be given to those in favor of and those opposed to the 206           question, in such order, to speak.
207           vi.    Rule 6: The Chair may call the question, without it requiring a second or vote, when he or she deems 208           that debate has exceeded its time limit or when discussion becomes repetitive.
209           vii.   Rule 7: When the vote of the Chair may decide the outcome of a decision (i.e. to make or break a 210           tie), he or she shall be empowered to cast a vote, but shall do so only after all other voting members
211           of the Student Assembly have registered their votes.
212           viii.   Rule 8: A voting Student Assembly member may appeal the decision of the Chair when he or she 213           disagrees with the Chair’s interpretation or application of the Standing Rules, Bylaws, or the Charter.
214           The motion shall require a simple majority to pass.
215           ix.    Rule 9: Any voting SA member may attempt to overrule a decision by the Executive Committee by 216           submitting their challenge in the format of a resolution at the next regularly scheduled meeting. A
217           2/3 majority of the voting membership must be reached to overrule the Executive Committee at any 218           time.
219           x.     Rule 10: The Parliamentarian shall administer a short examination on parliamentary procedure to all
220           voting members of the SA within four meetings of a representative taking the oath of office. This 221           examination will cover content from Robert’s Rules of Order and the most recent version of the SA

Cornell University Student Assembly

- 222 Charter, Bylaws, and Standing Rules. Any member who does not pass (a grade of 70% or higher) will 223 be required to attend an additional review workshop and retake the exam.
- 224 xi. Rule 11: Student Assembly members shall be permitted to withdraw a motion after it has been 225 seconded and before a vote has been taken on it.
- 226 xii. Rule 12: Ex-officio members as defined in the by-laws shall be permitted to make motions to amend.
- 227 xiii. Rule 13: Ex-officio members as defined in the bylaws shall also be permitted to sponsor resolutions, 228 without a voting SA member, if the content relates directly to their position.
- 229 xiv. Rule 14: By a  $\frac{2}{3}$  vote of SA members present, Robert's Rules of Order can be suspended.
- 230 xv. Rule 15: Discussion can be closed by a 60% vote of SA members present.
- 231 xvi. Rule 16: All meeting attendees are expected to be respectful to other meeting attendees and to 232 maintain proper meeting decorum.

233 Section 7: Outreach Guidelines & Member Responsibilities

- 234 A. Rule 1: All voting representatives shall host at least one forum or outreach activity with individuals from their 235 respective constituencies and report all outcomes to the SA at the next regularly-scheduled meeting following
236 such an activity. The four undesignated at-large representatives shall plan at least one Cornell Caring 237 Community, Lift Your Spirits, or large-scale outreach event per semester.
- 238 B. Rule 2: All elected members must fulfill two assigned outreach requirements per two-week time frame. Such 239 events will be designated by the Vice President of Outreach. If the member does not document their 240 outreach as specified by the VP of Outreach, the member will be credited with one whole absence. Any 241 conflicts in schedules or other special circumstances as references in Section 1, Rule 6 of this document must 242 be brought to the attention of the VP of Outreach.
- 243 C. Rule 3: All voting representatives may communicate regularly with their constituents through e-mail mailing 244 lists and listservs, which may be maintained by their respective college dean's office, the Department of 245 Campus Life, the Office of the Dean of Students, or the Office of the Assemblies.
- 246 D. Rule 4: Any Student Assembly member, including the Vice President for Public Relations, must submit a 247 mass message (e-mail, advertisement, press release, etc.) to the Executive Board for approval. The Executive 248 Board may approve a message by a majority vote and the vote may be conducted by email. The 249 correspondence must be saved.
- 250 E. Rule 5: The Vice President for Public Relations and the President will give final approval for the Student 251 Assembly newsletter. No amendments or additions to the newsletter will be distributed without the approval 252 of both officers.
- 253 F. Rule 6: The Executive Vice President must monitor and respond to any inquiries on the SA website. Such 254 inquiries can be forwarded to the appropriate Assembly member in order to ensure the most accurate 255 answers.
- 256 G. Rule 7: All ex-officio members acting in liaison positions should report relevant information to the Student 257 Assembly about their respective organization and report relevant actions of the assembly to their respective 258 organization as they see fit.

259 Section 8: Spending Guidelines

- 260 A. Category Spending:
- 261 i. Rule 1: In order for a disbursement of budgeted funds to be made, either the SA President or the 262 Vice President for Finance must approve it. The Vice President for Finance is responsible for 263 classifying the expenditure into a budget category.

- ii. Rule 2: The Student Assembly budget must be reviewed and approved by the SA by the conclusion of the second meeting of the academic year.
  - iii. Rule 3: Any reallocation of funds between categories of the budget or spending of the budget surplus must be confirmed by a majority vote of the Appropriations Committee followed by a majority vote of the Student Assembly, at large.
  - iv. Rule 4: The Vice President for Finance will maintain a record of all expenses of their committee. At the end of each semester, he or she will make public the amount left in the committee's account.
  - B. Special Projects Funding:
    - i. Rule 5: The Student Assembly may choose to fund any project, program or service through SA Special Projects that it deems to improve the quality of undergraduate student life or to further the goals of the SA. Special Projects funding is a type of category spending.
    - ii. Rule 6: Special Projects funding may be requested by any of the following, but not limited to:
      - i. Any Cornell registered student organization
      - ii. SA committee chairs that seek funding for expenditures that exceed their committee's budgeted allocation
    - iii. Rule 7: The SA President and Vice President for Finance together may approve any special projects funding request up to $400 without consultation with the Appropriations Committee. Amounts up to $400 may also be funded by a majority vote of the Appropriations Committee. Request must be made public at a Student Assembly meeting in the form of an "Announcement/Report" before being approved. Any SA voting member can motion for the request to be sent to the Appropriations Committee if they feel necessary.
    - iv. Rule 8: The Appropriations Committee shall decide upon special projects requests over $400 and under $1500 by a majority vote. The SA, at large, may reverse an Appropriations Committee decision to fund amounts over $400 by a two-thirds vote. The request should be presented to the Student Assembly in the form of a resolution.
    - v. Rule 9: Requests $1500 and over shall be decided upon by a majority vote of the Appropriations Committee and confirmed by a majority vote of the Student Assembly, at large. The SA, at large, is only required to confirm requests of $1500 or greater. The request should be presented to the Student Assembly in the form of a resolution.
    - vi. Rule 10: The Vice President for Finance shall present a written or oral report to the SA at large, each time a special projects disbursement is made.
