9	Whereas, laborors and foreign national employees continue to face harsh, exploitative working
10	conditions and inadequate protections under Qatari law, as described in International Trade
11	Union Confederation March 2014 report "The Case Against Qatar,"
12
13	Whereas, these abuses continue systemically despite Qatar's policy change late December 2016 to
14	ban sponsorship practices, as described by BBC News and Amnesty International;
15 16	Whereas these labor shows and recent ellegations of research missendust have been somested to
17	Whereas , these labor abuses, and recent allegations of research misconduct, have been connected to Education City, which Cornell is directly affiliated with, dissappointing the Cornell student
18	body;
19	body,
20	Whereas, there is an astounding lack of transparency regarding the internal affairs and functions of
21	the Education City university extensions, as all but one of the Universities have not made
22	public their charters with the Qatar Foundation;
23
24	Be it therefore resolved, that the original charter between Cornell University and the Qatar
25	Foundation be made public for increased transparency.
