S.A. Resolution #16 Creation of the "One Cornell Fund"

ABSTRACT: This resolution creates a fund for organization collaboration, named the "One Cornell Fund"

Sponsored by: Joe Anderson '20

Whereas, collaboration between student organizations in programming allows student to engage in conversations with others from a diversity of backgrounds and experiences;

Whereas, collaboration between student organizations allows for bigger programs that enhance the student experience;

Whereas, collaborative co-programming many times can be restrictive on the already limited budgets of many student organizations;

Whereas, it is the duty of the Student Assembly to effectively steward the Student Activity Fee, as per the Student Assembly Charter, Appendix A

Whereas, the Student Assembly has recently experienced an influx of money from a recent transfer from SAFC;

Be it therefore resolved, that $10,000 from the Student Assembly Special Projects Fund be allocated to a new account called the "One Cornell Fund" to promote the collaboration of student organizations on programming;

Be it further resolved, that a public application be created and available on the Office of the Assemblies site, next to the current Student Assembly Special Projects Funding Request;

Be it further resolved, that the following be inserted in the Student Assembly Standing Rules Section 8, effective immediately

A. C. One Cornell Fund

1. Rule 11. The One Cornell Fund may be used by any registered student organizations to promote collaboration for co-programming between the organizations.
