

Bylaws

Cornell University Assembly

As amended on February 21st, 2023

1

2

3

4 ARTICLE I: EX-OFFICIO MEMBERSHIP

5 The following serve as members of the Assembly ex-officio without vote:

6 1. the chair of each associated committee of the Assembly.

7 ARTICLE II: PROCEDURES

8 Section 2.1: Meetings

9 At the first meeting of the academic year, the Assembly shall adopt a schedule of meetings for the 10 remainder of the year. These meetings shall be referred to as the regular meetings.

11 Section 2.2: Special Meetings

12 Special meetings of the Assembly may be convened to consider issues of immediate and pressing
13 concern. The Chair of the Assembly, the President or in the President's absence, the Acting President, 14 may call a special meeting of the Assembly. The Chair shall call a special meeting of the Assembly when 15 requested to do so by two-thirds of its seated members.

16 Section 2.3: Quorum

17 A majority of the seated members of the Assembly constitute a quorum to do business.

18 Section 2.4: Robert's Rules of Order

19 The procedures for debate and general conduct of business of the Assembly in all matters not specifically 20 described in this document are Roberts Rules of Order, latest edition.

21 Section 2.5: Executive Session

22 With the concurrence of a majority of the voting members present, the Assembly or any of its committees
23 may enter executive session to discuss confidential matters. The Assembly must enter into its minutes the 24 purpose of an executive session. No policy decisions shall be made in executive session.

25 Section 2.6: Speaking Privileges

26 Any member of the Cornell community may request speaking privileges through the Chair, provided the 27 request is made at least 24 hours prior to a meeting. Consultants invited to a meeting by the Chair may 28 speak regarding the particular topic on which they were invited to present information or answer 29 questions. During the course of the meeting the Assembly may establish additional procedures for 30 granting speaking privileges.

31 Section 2.7: Agenda

32 The President of the University or any member of the Assembly may ask the Executive Vice Chair to 33 place of an item of business on the agenda. The Executive Board should place the item at the earliest 34 possible time that is practical or refer the item to appropriate committees for further review. The 35 Executive Vice Chair must make the agenda of the Assembly available to members no less than twenty-36 four hours prior to a meeting of the Assembly.
37 Except where explicitly stated by the Executive Board, agendas and associated documents are presumed 38 to be public documents that may be shared with the campus community.

39 Section 2.8: Minutes

40 The minutes of Assembly meetings and those of its committees shall be available to all members of the 41 University, except for those meetings, or portions thereof, conducted in executive session.

42 Section 2.9: Annual Report

43 The Chair of the Assembly, in consultation with its members, presents an annual report to the President
44 of the University. The report includes a summary of the Assembly's work during the year and describes 45 any outstanding issues or items of business that are expected to arise in the future. The Assembly must 46 make the report available to all members of the University.

47 Section 2.10: Timing of Regular Meetings and Notice of All Meeting Times 48 and

49 Regular meetings shall occur during the academic year only. The Executive Board must publicize and 50 allow the campus community to attend and observe all open meetings of the Assembly.

51 Section 2.11: Attendance Policy for Elected Members Not Yet Seated

52 Newly selected members of the Assembly must make every effort to attend any meetings that occur before 53 such members are seated.

54 Section 2.12: Attendance Policy for Seated Members

- 55 Seated and ex-officio members must attend all regular meetings of the Assembly. Members must:
- 56 A. notify the Chair of the Assembly at least twenty-four hours prior to any scheduled meeting they
- 57 are unable to attend, if possible; and,
- 58 B. not miss more than two regular meetings in any session of the Assembly.

62 If the Chair determines a member has failed to meet any of these requirements, the Chair must call for a

63 vote on unseating the member at the next regular meeting. If the Assembly votes to unseat the member,

64 the unseated member has not vacated the seat, but does not count for quorum and cannot vote until they 65 have been reseated. As soon as possible after a member has been unseated, the Chair must notify the 66 member and their constituent assembly that they have been unseated.

68 If an unseated member of the Assembly desires to be reseated, the member may call for a simple majority

69 vote of the Assembly to be reseated. The motion may not be postponed until after an agenda item

70 requiring a vote without the unseated member's consent. If the Assembly votes to reseate the member, the 71 member is reseated immediately with all rights restored.

72 Section 2.13: Reporting Responsibilities of Members of the Assembly

73 Presiding officers of each constituent assembly serve as liaisons between the Assembly and their

74 respective constituent assemblies, reporting the activities of the Assembly to their constituent assemblies

75 and the activities of their constituent assemblies to the Assembly.

76 Section 2.14: Sense-of-the-Community Referendum

- 77 The Assembly may call for a Sense-of-the-Community Referendum provided that it:
- 78 A. can be completed in the current session; and,
- 79 B. addresses a concern relevant to the entire University community in which all employees, faculty,
- 80 and students may vote.

81 ARTICLE III: COMMITTEES

82 Section 3.1: Ad hoc Committees

83 The Assembly, the Executive Board, and the Assembly's standing committees may establish such ad hoc

84 committees or subcommittees as are necessary for the proper performance of their functions. Any

85 alteration to the charge of such committees and subcommittees or to their membership must be reported
86 to the Vice Chair for Operations before being put into effect.

87 Sub-Section 3.1.1: Composition and Terms

- 88 A. The standing committee may recommend a specific prescription as to the membership of an ad
89 hoc subcommittee, including provisions for the appointment of members who are not 90 members of the standing committee or the Assembly.
91 B. No ad hoc committee may have fewer than three voting members. Each ad hoc committee
92 must disband at the end of a session of the Assembly.

93 Sub-Section 3.1.2: Appointment and removal of ad hoc committee members and chairs

94 Except where otherwise provided, the Vice Chair for Operations, in consultation with the Executive 95 Board, may appoint members. The Executive Board may remove members. A standing committee may 96 appoint members to or remove members from the subcommittees it establishes at its own discretion.

97 Section 3.2: Standing Committees

98 Sub-Section 3.2.1: Standing Committee Responsibilities

99 Each standing committee must:

- 100 A. hold and publicize at least one meeting per semester that is open to the campus community
101 where it receives and discusses items of business relevant to its charge;
102 B. submit, in a timely fashion, minutes of each meeting to the Vice Chair for Operations;
103 C. submit, before May 1, an annual report to the Vice Chair for Operations including a 104 summary of unfinished business of the committee;
105 D. make every reasonable attempt to ensure that members of the University community 106 affected by its recommendations are informed of the agenda of its meetings and of its 107 recommendations;
108 E. request that the Chair of the Assembly place on the agenda of the Assembly those matters, 109 which in its opinion require discussion by the Assembly; and,
110 F. respond to any requests from the Assembly for information or reconsideration of 111 recommendations.

112 Sub-Section 3.2.2: Standing committee composition and terms

113 Unless otherwise specified in its charge, each committee will consist of eleven voting members:

- 114 A. three appointed by and from the voting membership of the Assembly;
115 B. one appointed by each constituent assembly from its voting membership; and,

116 C. one appointed by each constituent assembly from the constituency it represents.
117 The officers of the assembly serve as non-voting, ex-officio members of the standing committees.

118 Sub-Section 3.2.3: Appointment and removal of standing committee members 119 and chairs

- 120 A. The Vice Chair for Operations, in consultation with the Executive Board, may appoint 121 members on behalf of the voting membership of the Assembly. The Executive Board may 122 remove members.
123 B. Except for compelling circumstances, no person should serve more than two consecutive 124 terms in a given committee.

125 Section 3.3: Procedures for policy development and legislative actions

126 The responsibilities articulated in this section apply only to committee business related to the Assembly's 127 authority in policy development or legislative actions.

128 Sub-Section 3.3.1: Mandatory Procedures

129 Each committee must:

- 130 A. issue a public notice on the Assembly's website of each motion related to a substantive 131 policy change, which includes:
132 1) a contact to whom inquiries and written comments may be directed, 133 2) period of time during which written comments will be accepted, and, 134 3) times and locations of any public hearings, if hearings are conducted; and,
135 B. issue a report based on its deliberations and any comments received, which the Assembly
136 will incorporate as supporting documentation into any related motion is subsequently 137 adopts.

138 Sub-Section 3.3.2: Normative Procedures

139 To the extent practical and appropriate, each committee must:

- 140 A. solicit written comments from campus constituencies for a public comment period of at 141 least two weeks in duration.

142 Sub-Section 3.3.3: Discretionary Procedures

143 Each committee may:

- 144 A. request reports and information from responsible administrative units;

- 145 B. extend, with public notice, the period of time when written comments are accepted; and,
146 C. conduct public hearings, in collaboration with responsible administrative units, to receive 147 oral comments from community members and experts.

148 ARTICLE IV: CHARGES OF STANDING COMMITTEES

149 Section 4.1: Campus Codes Committee

- 150 By delegation from the Assembly, the Committee will review any proposed motion related to:
- 151 The Student Code of Conduct; and
 - 152 Solicitation of applications from interested faculty, students and staff for service on the University
153 Hearing and Review Boards as specified in section "II C" of the Cornell Student Code of Conduct 154 Procedures; and
 - 155 Issues involving academic freedom and freedom of speech for all members of the 156 Cornell University community, including faculty, students, and staff on the Ithaca campus and those 157 located outside the United States.
- 158 The Committee may propose, review, and amend resolutions as it deems appropriate. The Committee
159 must approve resolutions referred for its consideration before they can be advanced to the Assembly for 160 a vote and for debate.

161 Section 4.1: Campus Welfare Committee

- 162 By delegation from the Assembly, the Committee will review any proposed motion related to:
- 163 diversity and inclusion;
 - 164 family support;
 - 165 health services; and,
 - 166 any other topic deemed relevant to campus welfare by the Executive Board.
- 167 The Committee may propose, review, and amend resolutions as it deems appropriate. The Committee
168 must approve resolutions referred for its consideration before they can be advanced to the Assembly for a
169 vote and for debate.

170 Section 4.1: Campus Infrastructure Committee

- 171 By delegation from the Assembly, the Committee will review and approve any proposed motion related 172 to:
- 173 environmental impact and sustainability;
 - 174 information technology;
 - 175 transportation and commuter policies; and,
 - 176 any other topic deemed relevant to campus infrastructure by the Executive Board.
- 177 The Committee may propose, review, and amend resolutions as it deems appropriate. The Committee
178 must approve resolutions referred for its consideration before they can be advanced to the Assembly for a

179 vote and for debate.

180 ARTICLE V: ASSOCIATED COMMITTEES

181 Section 5.1: Definition and General Specifications

- 182 A. The Assembly may, with the approval of the responsible administrative unit, identify associated 183 committees of the Assembly. Such committees are chartered and managed by the responsible 184 administrative unit, but report additionally to the Assembly and possess the same responsibilities
185 as standing committees of the Assembly.
- 186 B. Each committee's charge must:
- 187 1) identify of the administrative unit responsible for the committee;
 - 188 2) specify responsibilities of the committee; and,
 - 189 3) specify composition and terms of the committee.
- 190 C. The following requirements hold except where otherwise provided:
- 191 1) Both the Assembly and the responsible administrative unit must approve changes to the 192 charges of associated committees.
 - 193 2) The chairs of associated committees serve ex-officio as non-voting members of the 194 Assembly and are expected to attend all regularly scheduled meetings of the Assembly.
- 195 D. Except where otherwise provided, the constituent assemblies may appoint and remove the 196 members of each associated committee assigned to represent their respective constituencies. The 197 Vice Chair for Operations, in consultation with the Executive Board, may appoint members to fill
198 any vacancies that remain after September 1 provided the term of appointment does not run
199 beyond the current session of the Assembly.

200 Section 5.2: Campus Planning Committee

201 The Campus Planning Committee (the "Committee") supports comprehensive and clear planning
202 processes across campus in stewardship of the physical plant at Ithaca.

203 Sub-Section 5.2.1: Responsibilities

- 204 A. The Committee's charge is to review and make recommendations to the President regarding 205 physical planning for the Ithaca campus including:
- 206 1) master planning;
 - 207 2) land use and physical development;
 - 208 3) landscape and environmental planning and design;
 - 209 4) transportation planning;
 - 210 5) circulation and parking;
 - 211 6) infrastructure;
 - 212 7) new construction; and;
 - 213 8) renovations as they relate to the overall planning and character of the Ithaca campus.

Cornell University University Assembly

- 214 B. Among campus issues that the CPC shall review and advocate on behalf of, are 'university' and 215 'enabling' projects as identified in the Cornell Master Plan and other strategic planning 216 opportunities.
- 217 C. Furthermore, the CPC shall review in consultation with (and with the consultation of) the 218 appropriate committees of the University Assembly, all plans for alterations of or additions to 219 roads and parking lots on the Ithaca campus and all sustainability matters related to land and 220 campus development.
- 221 D. The CPC shall seek advice and comments from non-members including Cornell and non-222 Cornell affiliates, while discussing a specific issue or design. The CPC strives to enhance 223 communications, social inclusion, and accountability regarding physical planning and 224 development of the Ithaca campus.

225 Sub-Section 5.2.2: Composition

- 226 A. The CPC shall consist of four Presidential appointments, eight position appointments, nine 227 additional at-large members, and ex-officio members.
- 228 B. The presidential appointments are made by the President of the University, and those 229 individuals are to serve three-year terms on a staggered basis.
- 230 C. The position appointments or designees should be individuals with professional and technical 231 expertise in a design or planning related field. These positions consist of the chairs of the 232 following departments or their designees: Department of Architecture, Department of Natural 233 Resources, Department of Landscape Architecture, Department of City and Regional 234 Planning, and the Art Department as well as the directors of the following units or their 235 designees: the Cornell Plantations, Graduate Program in Historic Preservation, and the Vice 236 President for Facilities Services.
- 237 D. The nine at large members consist of one University Assembly liaison, two 238 graduate/professional students, two undergraduate students, two employees, and two faculty 239 members, each named by his or her respective Assembly for a two-year term.
- 240 E. The ex-officio members are added by virtue of their administrative positions at the University
241 and their connection to planning at the University.

242 Section 5.3: Transportation Hearing and Appeals Board

243 The Transportation Hearing and Appeals Board (THAB) shall review decisions that have been denied in 244 whole or in part by Transportation and Mail Services administrative staff on matters relating to violation 245 appeals, requests for special parking grants for those claiming financial hardship, and exceptions to 246 parking rules and regulations and/or normal permit eligibility criteria.

247 Sub-Section 5.3.1: Responsibilities

248 Violation appeals must each be decisioned separately, considering all relevant facts and 249 circumstances brought to the board's attention. The board shall only review cases for which it is 250 deemed an error in judgment or procedure was made in the original decision. In cases of requests 251 for special parking grants based on financial hardship, appellants must fully explain why they are 252 unable to use the transportation options available. In cases of requests related to exceptions to 253 parking rules and regulations and/or normal permit eligibility criteria, the board's decision shall 254 be based on demonstrated need and are subject to space and other limitations.

255 Sub-Section 5.3.2: Composition

256 THAB shall consist of twelve members nominated by their respective Assemblies and approved by 257 those bodies and one ex-officio member representing the administrative staff of Transportation 258 and Mail Services. Members shall be constituted as follows: four students (two 259 graduate/professional, two undergraduate), four faculty, and four employees. No employee of 260 Transportation and Mail Services or Cornell Police may serve on THAB. The term of membership
261 shall be two years, except that initially, so that terms may be staggered, two faculty, two students
262 and two employees shall serve terms of one year. THAB shall annually elect its own chairperson.
263 Hearings shall require a quorum of three members. In case of a tie vote, the decision shall be 264 recorded in favor of the appellant.

265 ARTICLE VI: LIAISONS TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

266 Section 6.1: Liaisons

267 At its annual organizational meeting, as soon as is practical thereafter, or whenever a vacancy arises, the 268 Assembly will appoint a liaison, or liaisons, as appropriate to serve as its representative on the following 269 bodies:

- 270 Policy Advisory Group
- 271 Council on Sexual Violence Prevention
- 272 Student Insurance Advisory Committee Liaison
- 273 Student Health Fee Advisory Committee Liaison

274 Section 6.2: Appointment and Removal

275 Each liaison may be appointed or removed by the same procedure as for appointing or removing a 276 member of a standing committee.